European Labor Refuses Aid to American Miners

FRANKFURT-ON-MAINE, Germany, Aug. 10.—(By International News Service).—All possibility of European labor intervention in the American coal strike ended today when debate upon the subject was closed in the congress of the International Federation of Miners.

Before the debate closed, William Mitchell, one of the American delegates, argued that the British miners were in a position to give support to the American strikers. He said that if the British miners would put an embargo upon British coal consigned to the United States, it would go far in assisting the American strikers.

COLLEGE ATHLETIC BREAK IS MENDED

St. Mary's and Santa Clara Differences Patched Up At Conference.

At a meeting held this morning at St. Mary's college, at which representatives of St. Mary's college and Santa Clara university were in attendance, it was definitely decided by the presidents of the two institutions to permit the resumption of athletic relations.

The two institutions have not been meeting each other for the past eleven years in football, the last game that took place having been played in 1911. The break came in 1912 during the baseball season, and since that date, with the exception of basketball games arranged under the California-Nevada Basketball league, in which were both Santa Clara and St. Mary's, no athletic contests have been arranged.

The following statement was issued following the meeting this morning:

"Rev. Father Maher, president of Santa Clara university, and Brother Vantassian, president of St. Mary's college, have just concluded a conference and have agreed that Santa Clara university and St. Mary's college resume athletic relations. They will immediately call a meeting of their respective athletic boards to arrange dates for athletic contests."

Whether St. Mary's and Santa Clara will meet on the gridiron this year as a result of the decision of the conference could not be learned today, though St. Mary's had previously stated that their schedule was complete. Graduate Manager LeFevre expressed willingness to do anything possible to bring about a meeting of the two institutions on the gridiron and an early conference of the athletic board will be called to determine if this will be possible by a shift of dates of the schedule.

CORK FALLS, REBELS USE DYNAMITE

Free Staters Are Victors in Biggest Battle of the Irish Rebellion; Big Buildings Blown Up By Irregulars

DUBLIN, Aug. 10.—(By International News Service).—The city was attacked by thousands of Free State troops, who rushed from Dublin to Cork by water.

The Free State troops disembarked in small boats three miles from Cork, marched on the rebel stronghold, firing heavy artillery at rebel stands along the way.

Although there were no reports of casualties, hundreds are believed to have been killed or wounded in the terrific battle.

The offices of the Examiner, Cork Constitution, Hotel Victoria and the military barracks were blown up during the night.

The coup of the 'troops of Michael Collins, one of the most daring since hostilities broke out between the government and irconcilables, comes at a time when the rebels hold the whip hand by their seizure of cable lines between England and the United States.

The trip from Dublin is so hazardous it is reported that generals of the free state called for volunteers.

By DANIEL O'CONNELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Irish irregular troops are reported to have evacuated Cork after dynamiting a number of big buildings, said a Central News despatch from Dublin today.

The buildings, including the military barracks, Victoria hotel and the offices of the newspapers Examiner and Constitution.

DUBLIN, Aug. 10.—A battle has begun between Free State and irregular troops for possession of Cork, according to despatches from the "front" today. Heavy fighting was reported at Youghal, 27 miles east of Cork, where Free State forces were landed from ships.

Free State soldiers are moving upon Cork from both the east and west. Irregulars in the city have set fire to many buildings.

Abeytafe and Drumcollogher, the last strongholds of the irregulars in Limerick county, have been captured by Free State troops. The Free State advance continues at all points.

CABLE DELAYS ARE FELT IN MARKETS.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—Cable communications between Great Britain and the United States were subject to delays today, which put the foreign exchange market and banks almost at a standstill and affected other trade in Wall Street and elsewhere.

Cable officials said they were trying to "move heaven and earth" over the lines remaining to them since the Irish irregulars seized the Commercial Cable company's station at Waterville and the "Eastern Union" plant at Valencia on the Kerry coast. It is reported mountains of messages are piled up at both sides of the Atlantic.

Many banks reported no quotations had come to them from the other side of the ocean today, and Wall Street seemed to think the delays would be felt in all the markets. Large numbers of commercial messages ordinarily sent by radio, which congested the wireless facilities.

FRENCH FIRM IN FIGHT FOR INDEMNITIES

Cabinet Backs Premier Poincare's Policy of "Productive Forfeits;" Under Consideration at Conference

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Progress is being made in determining upon a plan for funding the $2,500,000,000 French debt to the United States, Secretary Mellon stated today following a conference today between the American Debt Funding Commission and the French mission headed by Jean Parmentier.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—(By International News Service).—The British cabinet this afternoon rejected Premier Poincare's proposals for the economic rehabilitation of Europe, being considered at the economic conference.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—(By International News Service).—Premier Poincare's uncompromising policy of "productive forfeits" against Germany, which is under consideration by the inter-allied indemnity conference in London, was approved by the French cabinet today.

President Millerand presided at the cabinet meeting.

After approving the premier's report from London, a telegram was sent to M. Poincare, saying his policy had the support of the French government.

By DAVID M. CHURCH, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Following a meeting of the cabinet to consider the serious industrial situation that has resulted from the Anglo-French differences in indemnity, it was suggested this afternoon that a temporary moratorium be given to Germany, while plans are made for another international conference when a final settlement, it is hoped, will be reached.

There was a full attendance of cabinet members. Colonial Secretary Churchill flew from Paris by airplane to be present. After the meeting the ministers were pessimistic. Counter proposals to take the place of the program of Premier Poincare, with its "productive forfeits," were discussed at length. It was generally agreed that the conference would not escape collapse unless the French indemnity program was modified.

Commission Urged To Curb Oil Prices

By KENNETH W. CLARK, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Recommendations that a commission be established to regulate the oil industry may result from the senatorial investigation of high gasoline prices. Some members of the committee are known to believe that only in this way can the public be protected against exorbitant charges for gasoline.

This was indicated today as reports to the special committee tended to show that a "tacit agreement" existed among so-called standard producers in regard to arbitrary price setting.

FIELD MARSHAL'S SLAYERS HANGED

Crowds of Irish Sympathizers Recite Prayers During Execution.

By F. A. WRAX, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Reginald Dunn and Joseph O'Sullivan, assassins of Field Marshal Henry Hughes Wilson, chief of the British imperial general staff, were hanged in the yard of Wandsworth jail this morning just 40 days after the crime was committed.

The jail was under heavy guard of soldiers throughout the execution. Hundreds of Irish sympathizers had spent the night in adjacent streets reciting prayers and singing hymns. Squads of men carried back and forth before the gall carrying lighted candles.

According to the jail warden, the men died gamely and neither one made a statement before the trap was sprung.

The execution took place about 5 o'clock.

Reginald Dunn and Joseph O'Sullivan were sentenced to death in the Old Bailey court. Setting themselves up as martyrs, the slayers of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson accepted the verdict with little show of emotion.

Following the passing of sentence, each man was given an opportunity to make a statement.

"All I have done, my lord, I have done for Ireland, and for Ireland I am proud to die," O'Sullivan said dramatically. "You may kill my body, my lord, but my spirit you will never kill."

A true bill charging the two men with murder was returned July 17. The trial was a speedy one, the death sentence being passed upon the two murderers within twenty-four hours after their indictment.

Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, one of the most outstanding military leaders of the World War, was shot to death near his home on June 21. The funeral of the distinguished military leader, attended by royalty, was one of the longest in the history of London—attesting the popularity of the war hero.

Tariff Bill To Be Rushed in Senate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—Provisions of the tariff bill under which the President would be given broad authority over taxes levied at the custom houses occupied the attention today of the Senate. These with the Frelinghuysen and other suggestions for a scientific "tariff" were to be disposed of by tomorrow night, two days for their consideration having been set aside by the unanimous consent agreement entered into last week.

With the Senate apparently in a mood to act to rush tariff matters, some leaders were hopeful that the bill could be passed and sent to conference before the end of next week.

Before quitting work last night the Senate voted 33 to 25 to concur in the action of the House in keeping hides on the free list.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS, LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

Flanner, a Brooklyn postoffice clerk, was arrested today on the eve of his wedding for the alleged theft from the mails at San Francisco last May of a $114 pension check addressed to John Boltman, at Doring, Ore. Inspectors who made the arrest declared Flanner admitted his guilt, saying he stole to aid his parents, who were ill and in need.

WHITING, Ind., Aug. 10.—(By International News Service).—The city of Whiting was rocked today by an explosion of a tar well in the Standard Oil Company plant. Fire followed and led to wild rumors of enormous loss of life. Company officials said no one was injured. The flames were snuffed with live steam, applied by the company fire department.

GENERAL RAILWAY STRIKE THREATENED AS 'BIG FOUR' WALKOUT GAINS IMPETUS

2,000,000 Brotherhood Workers May Quit; Declared Difficult to Hold Men Back; Give Approval

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—(By International News Service).—Approximately 10 per cent of the National Guard troops in the country are now on duty in connection with the railroad and mine strikes, according to figures compiled by the war department. Fifteen states have troops in the field.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen today telegraphed general chairmen of his organization on the Illinois Central, Chicago & Northwestern, and Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific systems, advising that "if employment on your line is unbearable on account of conditions due to shopmen's strike, your general committee should be convened and if a majority of such committee votes in favor of a strike, authority of the undersigned will be given." Lee said similar instructions would go to all general committees forwarding complaints.

MINERS TO SIGN PEACE CONTRACT

Committee Votes to Proceed With Settlement and Return to Work.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—The policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America today voted to proceed with the negotiations of a wage scale agreement with the operators of Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois, who are here for the joint conference that was called with the view of breaking the soft coal strike.

In announcing the decision, President John L. Lewis of the miners said:

"I confidently predict that, when a scale is made here, 75 per cent of all the bituminous tonnage now on strike will sign the scale and return to work within a week."

Settlement of the strike in the anthracite regions would "naturally follow" the resumption of work in the soft coal industry, Lewis said.

Refusal of the Indiana and Illinois operators' associations to join the conference, he said, would "make no difference" in proceeding toward making an agreement. He asserted that the miners had "definite assurances that important producers" of these two States would accept any scale decided on by the conference.

U. S. MINE SEIZURE URGED BY GOVERNOR.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—Facing the most serious coal shortage in history, governors or their representatives from seven northern and central states met here today to agree on some uniform methods of procedure for meeting the situation.

Governor Blaine, Wisconsin, urged government seizure and operation of all mines necessary to supply the country's coal demands, while Governor Preuss, Minnesota, urged an organization of the states during the emergency.

Other states represented were North and South Dakota, Montana, Michigan and Iowa.

Imports of English Australian Coal Soar

Considerable significance is attached, in view of the present coal strike, by local fuel dealers to the large shipments of Australian and English coal now being landed in the port of Oakland. During the first week of August some 22,000 tons of coal were landed from Australia and England in Oakland. The Swedish steamer Boren has just landed 2,335 tons of Australian coal and the British steamer Canadian Transporter is now unloading 7399 tons of Australian coal at the King coal bunkers.

En route to this port from Australia with coal cargoes are the Swedish steamer West Isaf, the British steamer Great City, the barkentine Hesperian, and the steamer Devon City. This fleet will land 28,000 tons of fuel in Oakland, in addition to which several large coal cargoes are en route here from England.

It was stated today at the head offices of the King Coal Company that the coal is consigned to brokers, at whose orders part of the consignment is shipped from Oakland to various points in California. The remainder is stored in Oakland and San Francisco, where it is held for the bunkering of ocean going vessels.

Golfer Aims at One Hole and Makes Another

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 10.—As a golfer, C. N. Dyk, local player, claims to be in a class by himself. He made three holes in one. Those who saw it call it a fluke shot, and Dyk himself admits that he was driving for No. 5 green when the ball dropped into the cup on No. 7.

Playing on a municipal course, Dyk holed the drive from No. 5 tee. The ball sailed off its course and sank into No. 7 cup, 25 yards from its original destination, the No. 5 green.

Rail Head Says Shopmen Evaded Harding's Terms

An explanation of the labor committee on public relations of the Association of Railway Executives regarding the railroad's view of President Harding's proposals and the position of the shopmen's strike, made public today, said that a large majority of the public has been misled regarding a stand of union leaders and that there is considerable confusion over the President's proposal with respect to the primary question.

"The labor leaders in their letter to the President, did not agree to accept the rulings of the labor board in the future. Every word they said upon this subject shows that they have reserved the right to strike in future against any decision of the board which they do not like."

"There is only one way in which employees can possibly refuse to recognize the validity of and carry out a decision of the labor board. That is by striking rather than accepting it."

"The duty of the employees, to abide by the decisions of the board only as long as they continue to render service, that is, until they strike."

"Since it is absolutely impossible for the employees to violate a decision of the board, it is evident that the labor leaders necessarily reach the astonishing conclusion that while the railways can violate decisions of the board, it is impossible for the employees to do so."

ing if it becomes necessary for him to take over the railroads to prevent the transportation of coal, food and other necessities of life from breaking down completely. This was the judgment today of senate leaders of both parties who are entertaining faint hope of an early settlement of the rail strike, already were anticipating that congress would soon be called upon to authorize President Harding to seize the railroads as a peace emergency measure just as President Wilson was empowered to assume control of them as a war emergency move.

Some senators held the opinion that the country was rushing fast into a crisis far more grave than has yet developed and that when the house reassembled on Tuesday, government operation of the railroads, if not of the coal mines would confront congress and the administration as the only way to save the country from acute distress. Republican leaders fresh from the conferences with the President, made no effort to disguise the pessimism with which they regarded the outlook. They admitted frankly that they were prepared for him to appear before congress next week and ask for immediate legislative authority to keep trains moving.

Taken From Water.

PEKING, Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—Deaths in the typhoon of August 2 at Swatow, a seaport 250 miles northeast of Hongkong, now are estimated at 50,000, the American consul at Swatow has reported to the American legation. The consul added that 100,000 were homeless and relief was needed urgently.

The Chamber of Commerce list of subscriptions for relief of the typhoon sufferers at Swatow now amounts to more than $42,000.

The population of the town was tabulated as not more than 60,000. The typhoon and tidal wave, however, swept the entire region surrounding the little port.

Khalifat Movement In India Is Growing

BOMBAY, Aug. 10.—The Khalifat movement in India which, several months ago brought about a revision of the Sevres treaty, has had a large part in the movement toward Indian home rule. Hindus seeking Mohammedan support for the Swadeshi agitation for self-government, have seen fit to support the Khalifat movement in return. The Khalifat movement, unlike Swadeshi, is wholly Mohammedan in its aims. Originating in a protest against the peace terms which the allies offered to Turkey at the close of the war, it seeks the restoration of the K. I. I's temporal power and the freeing of Mohammedans from Christian rule. The claim regarding the Khalifat calls for leaving the Turkish empire as it was at the outbreak of the war except that, although the allegations of Turkish misrule are not admitted, the non-Turkish nationalities may, if they so desire, be granted autonomous government within the empire.

BROTHERHOOD MEN AUTHORIZED TO JOIN STRIKE

Quit When Lives Endangered, Says Orders Received From Heads.

Instructions that they are to refuse to take out "bad order" locomotives, and that they should continue work when "your lives are endangered by inexperienced and careless armed railroad guards" has been received by local executives of the "Big Four" railroad brotherhoods, according to announcement by L. L. Sanford, district chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

These developments were hailed by the striking railway shop workers as an indication of the solidarity existing among the railway brotherhoods, and as an omen that the brotherhoods will back up the shop workers to the utmost of their capacity.

L. S. Gordon, secretary of the shop workers' federation, has dispatched a telegram to M. J. Tavel, who is conducting the negotiations at Chicago in behalf of the strikers, saying that engineers place their lives in jeopardy by serving on the locomotives in their present condition. Gordon said yesterday: "Although the Big Four organizations are in no way connected with our own, and they must follow whatever course they themselves decide upon, we feel that we must let both our leaders and theirs know that we believe they ought not to work any longer under existing conditions."

"Locomotive engineers are not expected to inspect the engines they work in. Supposedly there are two inspectors to do that work in this territory. However, one of them is in a hospital and the other is reported ill. Practically there is no inspection at all."

My report is largely general, but it includes details of several specific instances."

Bank Alarm Rings; No Burglars Found

The ringing of the burglar alarm, in the branch of the Bank of Italy at College and Niles avenues last night, brought out a patrol wagon loaded with officers. Officials of the bank were notified and a thorough search made, but apparently nothing had been disturbed, and no evidence of burglars was revealed. The police are of the opinion that the alarm was set off by crossed wires. The alarm came at 8:20 p. m., and the patrol wagon was sent from the northern police station.

FORMER BANK OFFICIAL ADMITS FORGERY OF NOTE

Gustaf A. Hemple of Turlock
Confesses Securing $5000 By Fraud.

Special to The TRIBUNE.

MODESTO, Aug. 10.—Gustaf A. Hemple, former president of the Security State bank at Turlock, today made a detailed confession saying that he forged the name of his successor at the bank to a note for $5000, according to a statement from the police.

Hemple is said to have blamed his downfall on insufficient funds to live in the style he desired, and the fact that his automobile was expensive. He was arrested on a warrant from Los Angeles charging forgery and will be tried there.

"I did it. I knew better, but it was done in a moment," Hemple is said to have told the police. It was just done—that's all I expected to take care of everything. It is not so much for myself that I care, but for the bravest and best little wife. She will wait and I'll start all over again.

"It's no use to fight. It's done and I admit it. I couldn't get by on the money I was making. I figured they would not trace the note so soon, and that when it came due I would make it good. I thought that the money would bridge me over and I could see my way clear later on."

Hemple severed his connections with the Turlock banking institution several months ago, and was replaced by Joseph N. Johnson. In July the Farmers and Merchants National Bank in Los Angeles cashed a $5000 note for Hemple to which the name of Johnson was forged, according to the police.

Recently Hemple has been practicing law in Turlock. He has been a resident there for a number of years.

Lisbon Strike Ends
As Bread Price Drops

NINETEEN DOGS EXECUTED FOR MURDER OF MAN

Convicted Without Trial,
They Pay Penalty For Death of Rancher.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 10.—Convicted without trial, sentenced without hearing and executed without warning of benefit of clergy, nineteen dogs today had paid the death penalty for the murder of A. Disc, rancher.

Bise was found chewed to death by dogs in his bed at his home at Antelope, near here, two days ago. Mrs. Louis Balardi, owner of the dogs, was taken to her home late yesterday and instructed to call them in from the fields. She did not know they were to be killed.

"I would give my life for my dogs," she said. "I would kill the person that kills my dogs. They mean more to me than husband or brother to me. They are more to me than life itself."

After Mrs. Balardi had been taken back to the county jail, Humane Officer Witten's shot the nineteen dogs as they were penned in the little cabin.

Re-enacting step by step the details of the gruesome murder, which resulted in the death of Bise, whose mutilated body was found Tuesday morning, Mrs. Balardi conducted Chief Deputy District Attorney Clifford A. Russell and deputies from Sheriff Ellis Jones' office over the ground where the murder was committed.

THEORY OF OFFICERS.
Russell was working on the theory that the woman's confession in the district attorney's office Wednesday morning was made to shield Louis Balardi.

"Louis was in the house asleep. He did not know anything about it until after I had taken Bise home," said Mrs. Balardi.

Russell believes that the deep out on Bise's head, not have been caused by dogs, as Mrs. Balardi asserts. The woman insists that no blow was struck by her and that no other human being was near.

"The dogs did it," she screamed. "So help me God, I am telling the truth. Bise struck my dog and—well, everybody goes crazy. I don't know what happened after that until I found myself helping the man."

The Balardi woman said she would have confessed sooner but she was afraid the dogs would be killed. She pointed to a black and white dog.

"That's Causeway. He is the same as the Yolo Causeway. I would give my life for him. See that scar on his head? That is where Bise struck him with a club."

"Do you think more of Causeway than you do of your husband?" the woman was asked.

DOG PLACED BEFORE SPOUSE.
"I do," she replied. "Causeway saved my life once. I would die for him before I would for my husband or brother."

"I'll come back to you, Causeway," she said, patting the dog's head.

For a moment the woman was changed. Her round, staring eyes became soft. Her face relaxed. But at the next question from the district attorney she again became the hunted thing.

The re-enactment began at the windmill, where the trouble started.

"Here is where the trouble started," said Mrs. Balardi. "One of my dogs got too near the well. Bise struck it. Then he struck me. I shouted for Louis, my husband, and began running toward the house."

The woman ran toward the house as she said she had done that Monday night. At about 200 feet distant she stopped.

"Here is where he caught me," she exclaimed. "He knocked me down. I kept screaming for Louis. But Louis was asleep."

"I don't know what happened for a while. All I know is that I was trying to get the dog off of Bise. Finally I got them off. Bise said, 'Mabel, take me home.' I put my arms under him and helped him to his feet. Then I helped him walk along. He was pretty weak. So was I."

TRIED TO REVEIVE BISE.
"But I got him there and put him on the bed. Then I got Louis. Louis came and when he saw the mutilated body, he said, 'My God! We both washed the man and tried to revive him.'"

"Bise said, 'Take me to the Sacramento hospital.' I sent Louis to fix our car. He did but could not get it going. So then we fixed Bise up and left for the night. When Louis came back in the morning Bise was dead."

Twenty chickens were found dead in the Balardi yard when officers went out Wednesday. The pack of dogs, unattended by their mistress, was hungry and wild.

Mrs. Balardi went over the place in a dazed manner. Except when she was questioned her face expressed stolid resignation. She does not think that she has committed a wrong. She expects to return to her place in a few days.

No still is found on the place, as Mrs. Balardi had charged in her alleged confession.

Balardi remains unshaken in his denial of his wife's story.

EYES SAVED BY GLASSES.
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—That the sight of both his eyes was not destroyed in an explosion which occurred in the laboratory while he was demonstrating methods in qualitative analysis was attributed today by J. Frank Smith, professor of chemistry at the University of Southern California, to the fact that he wore face-protecting glasses.

The cause of the explosion was said to have been over-concentration of acid.

SAVE AND USE REDWOODS, SAYS DR. C. A. WHERRY

Round Table Meeting Told Value Sequoia Park Will Prove to Oakland.

Members of the Presidents' Round Table, meeting at luncheon at the Hotel Oakland yesterday, heard a message in behalf of the "Save the Redwoods" campaign, which will come to the voters of Oakland in the form of a bond issue to purchase Redwood park for the city.

Dr. C. A. Wherry, the speaker, told of visiting a number of the larger cities of the country and of making a study of municipal parks. He declared that in Redwood park Oakland has a chance to acquire one of the most beautiful park sites of any in the United States, and one which will equal municipal parks found in cities much larger than Oakland.

"This treasure that lies at our doors should be appreciated by us," declared the speaker. "These redwoods are our best bet and we should play it for all that it is worth."

Referring to the location of the park, Dr. Wherry said that it was but six miles from the city, a short distance in comparison to the parks in many other large communities. One of these, he said, was Kansas City, where a similar park, not so beautiful and in which the trees are not nearly as plentiful nor as large is located twelve miles away. "We should not only save these trees, but we should use them. The park constitutes a haven to which we can withdraw within a few moments away from the noise, the dust and the clamor of the city. Here we are afforded the restful quiet that comes as a balm to our spirits," said the speaker.

In conclusion Dr. Wherry said that one great trouble with Americans is that they do not know how to play. "We spend too much time watching our professionals in baseball, football, tennis and other sports, where we should be taking part ourselves. We should have a system of parks and public playgrounds where we all can participate in outdoor sports."

Wallet Needed On Moscow White Way

MOSCOW, Aug. 10.—After one or two visits to Moscow's newly opened and gay summer cafes, foreigners visiting Russia usually refer to their rooms to a diet of crackers and cheese and frantically telegraph home for more money. The Russian capital has become probably the most expensive city in Europe from the standpoint of living costs to the foreigner. Unhappily the restaurant proprietors furnish third rate meals and demand prices which an American summer resort hotel in the height of the season would not even consider. American war profiteers were blushing, shrinking violets in comparison with Moscow's get-rich-quick trillionaires.

JAPAN TO SCRAP NAVY WHEN U. S., ENGLAND READY

Plans Complete and Work to Start Without Waiting For France, Italy.

TOKYO, Aug. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—As soon as ratification of the five-power naval treaty drawn at the Washington arms conference is exchanged by the United States, Great Britain and Japan, the Japanese admiralty will put into effect plans already made for scrapping war tonnage under the naval limitation program. An admiralty official explained that until these three powers take final action, Japan did not feel justified in scrapping a single new ship.

He said, however, that Japan was not influenced by what France might be disposed to do.

A strong party here would favor making the five-power treaty a three-power one should France and Italy fail to ratify it.

MORGAN SHORT OF CASH, LATINS REFUSE CHECKS

ROME, Aug. 10.—Italian newspaper yesterday published a telegram from Soisano, on the Italian-Austrian frontier, stating that J. P. Morgan, who was passing from Austria to Italy at the Brenner pass, was asked by customs officials to deposit the equivalent of the Italian import duty on his car. The officials explained that the duty would be returned to him on his leaving Italy.

The despatch said that Morgan was without money. He offered a check on his bank but this was refused. He was forced to return to Innsbruck to secure the necessary cash, the newspapers say.

TAFT STRIKES KEYNOTE OF BAR CONVENTION IN S. F.

LAW POWERLESS IN SELF UNLESS USERS RESPECT IT, SAYS CHIEF JUSTICE

Unit of Administration in Civil Action Favored as Aid to Speeding Up of United States Courts

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—The principle that it is not the law, but that it is the power that makes it powerful, but reverence for it in the hearts and actions of those who administer it and are governed by it, today emerged as the "theme" and unifying of the leading addresses and discussions of the American Bar Association's 10th-15th annual convention, which opened its 10th annual session here.

One after another the recommendations made to the lawyers of the nation by jurists of world-wide reputation and by important committees, scholars and recognized authorities, all seemed to revolve around this same principle: that it is not force, nor authority, nor the will of the law, such as congress, but the willing co-operation of the users of the law, such as judges and lawyers, on the one hand, and the general public on the other, that will and must provide the needed reforms in international affairs, federal and state court procedure, the administration of criminal law, and human affairs generally.

TAFT STRIKES KEYNOTE

This keynote was struck, to the accompaniment of thunderous applause that shook Nativex Hotel for many minutes, by Chief Justice William Howard Taft, former president of the United States, who today delivered the principal address of the convention.

The need for speedier justice in the United States courts, and the need by which it best may be secured, was the subject discussed by the chief justice, who recently returned from a visit to England which he made for the purpose of conducting a comparative study of English and American legal procedure.

It is the judges of the country, and not the legislature, who must be looked to for badly needed reforms in the administration of the law, according to Chief Justice Taft. He recommended the appointment by President Harding of a commission consisting of supreme court justices and others to prepare and recommend to congress amendments to the present statutes of practice and the judicial code, authorizing a unit administration of law and equity in one form of civil action.

"Dependence upon action of congress to effect reforms to remove delays and to bring about speed in the administration of justice has not brought the best results," the chief justice declared.

BRITISH PEER SPEAKS

Referring to international affairs, Lord Shaw of Dunfermline, who represents the bar of Great Britain and was another of the principal speakers at the convention, declared it is their common loyalty to the law that will bind together the nations of the world, and particularly Great Britain and America, rather than any international law that is backed up by either authority or armed force.

This same note was struck by Thomas W. Shelton of Virginia, who passed last summer sitting with judges in England in order to study English court procedure. He said all the power of congress could

VISIT TO SON POSTPONED AGAIN

"Well, well, there I didn't expect to see you again until fall. I thought you had come up to spend a month or two with your son in Lake County."

"No, not yet. That is I did intend to go sometime. I like to get out of doors in the summer in a place where it isn't too hot, and the boy has it pretty near where he is. Has a fruit ranch in the mountains, and it doesn't get so very hot. Fine scenery there, and I reckon it'll do me a lot of good to get out of the city for a while."

"It sure will, but it is getting on towards fall now, and I'd better go soon or I'll have time to get home."

"You were gone soon?"

"I didn't say, sorry. Truth is, I keep putting off the trip till I get some extra money to buy a suit. Seems like payments have been due on everything, and I haven't got that suit yet."

"Now, it's a shame to delay your trip for that. Why don't you go to 528 15th street and buy a nice suit at Cherry's? You can get it now and pay down a few percent of the whole suit, and the rest on monthly payments. They allow you six months, you know."

Cherry's store for women is at 515 15th street.—Advertisement.

An Aid to Wearing This Season's Fashions

(Helps to Beauty)

Here is a simple, unfailing way to rid the skin of objectionable hairs: With some powdered deodorant and water make enough paste to cover the hairy surface, apply and rub about 2 minutes. Rub off with a damp cloth. The hair is harmless, but to avoid disappointment be sure to get the deodorant in an original package and mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

Army Worms Infest Peach Orchards

FAIRVIEW, Aug. 10.—Army worms have invaded this district and are attacking peach trees, causing heavy damage to the crop. The worms swarm over the trees and nibble the surface of the ripening fruit. The sides of a number of trees present a weird appearance as they are covered with wiggling masses of worms. Ranchers are adopting severe methods to end the invasion and their efforts are beginning to take effect.

Slain Woman's Diary Reveals Sad Memories

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Sad thoughts of her dead husband, Clara Phillips and no intimation of her death, may be traced to the effect of the English rules of court that have displaced the old common law, and the result of the new procedure.

Shelton told the committee. Shelton passed last summer in England, making a comparative study of British and American court procedure.

WATCH FOR WEDNESDAY ADVERTISERS

ANGLO-AMERICAN COMRADESHIP, PLEA OF JURIST

Call For Unity Closes Address of Lord Shaw, Noted English Barrister.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—(By Associated Press.)—A plea that the members of the Anglo-American race must be comrades forever was made last night at the convention of the American Bar Association by the Rt. Hon. Lord Shaw of Dunfermline, representative of the bar of Great Britain at the sessions.

Lord Shaw based his plea for comradeship on "a common loyalty to law" and appealed for the abolition of the ancient grudge. He paid high tribute to a number of American statesmen, including Lincoln, Washington, President Harding, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson, and characterized Elihu Root as "the Grotius of America."

The call for unity came at the end of a lengthy address in which the English barrister discussed many technical points of law which the nations observed in common. He touched briefly on the breakfast of Russia and advised the legal profession in this country to "keep in touch with the ground of common sense."

"Humanity has bleeding and striking," said Lord Shaw. "The hand of war and the hand of the doctrine like a curse. We think of the union of the English speaking race, not for its own sake, but for the service that lies to its hand. From staunch wounds, to redress wrongs, to remove oppressions, and teach men a new and better way for body and soul."

"We men of the Anglo-American race must be comrades forever. I know no plainer call to the comradeship of righteousness than a common loyalty to law. My appeal to you is that the ancient grudge should be forever forgotten, and that the ancient comradeship should be renewed and repledged forever."

Do not think we on the other side are not aware of and sympathize with you in these constitutional difficulties with which you are confronted. We know the foundations of Jefferson against allances we know the power of the written constitution, not only over your minds but most decidedly over your hearts. It will be the highest test of your statesmanship to evolve out of the citizenship of America something which honoring and conserving it will give it a new place in the citizenship of the world.

"Watch that moving, restless, elbowing, combatant crowd which we call civilization. There is a figure there bigger, more upstanding, more commanding than the others. More and more he seems to control the crowd, suppressing confusion, regulating traffic, making the rough places plain and every place safe; and his hand is swift and heavy on crime and on the sneak and tender and helpful to the weak and struggling and the oppressed. His name is Law."

"At this hour, after the Great War, even as the smoke smell of blood clears away, law assumes its sway, planting anew the standards of legality, human and divine."

"I reckon the conference of Washington to have been greater than a conference, and the five-power naval agreement and the four-power pact for the Pacific ocean, the one with its real, instant, and definite limitation of armaments, the other turning possibly this great ocean into a vast Pacific highway, reeking with things to be a sensible mitigation of the fears of humanity, a sensible contribution to the peace and progress of mankind. We heartily bear in mind the services and achievements of America in the world cause, and the firm and practical statesmanship of its President and secretary of state."

"The best amongst you probably look back to the latter fifteenth century when the world was a new world to your citizenship. Then it was that the law of status and the law of the constitution had to be re-ordained, and that under the high places of liberty and the right of man, Lowell puts the old way which the elder legists could always defend: 'Here I stand on the Constitution, by thunder!'"

"These were defensible propositions in the mouth of a mere lawyer, a mere constitutionalist, a mere politician, and Lincoln was patient with them. But when to yield to them would have been to give in to the American commonwealth, then his heart, always true, cleared his vision, and he seemed to reason that man was more than a constitution; that the law was made for man and not man for the law."

"When the superior in position, in influence, in numbers, in adherents or in rank fails—the law into his own hands, then the insistence of the domination of force over reason is promptly illustrated, and the private wrong calls aloud for legal redress."

A new fear is at the heart of mankind at this hour. It is connected with the advance of science. Never since the world began had force, brutality and anarchy such an opportunity. War, with all its sacrifices, has not been too dear to the people of mankind to the appalling gravity of continuing in the worship of force and of further defying the governance of reason. A new era opens to mankind.

"If you conceive of international law as binding all nations, then the international law—I speak it with sorrow but conviction—international law is in ruins. Force under immoral or non-moral control we know, undo and has undone, the human conventions of the ages. And a destruction can now be accomplished in the courts of minutes which will overthrow the achievements of mankind built up in the course of centuries. The earth is atrophied."

"Gloves reason and the arbitrament of justice be reasserted on the earth, we will hide beneath the ground on which the ruins of human happiness have been overthrown."

Sale of Pistols Cause of Crime, Says Committee

Recommendations For Law Enforcement Include Ban On Public Use.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—(By Associated Press.)—Declaring that the pistol "serves no useful purpose in the community today," the committee on law enforcement included in its recommendations submitted to the American Bar Association tonight one for the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of pistols and of cartridges and ammunition designed to be used in them, "save as such manufacture may be necessary for governmental and official use under proper regulations and control."

"We find that more than 90 per cent of the crimes in this country are committed by the use of pistols," continued the report of the committee, of which Judge William B. Swaney of Chattanooga, Tenn., was chairman. "We find that the laws prohibiting the carrying of firearms of deadly weapons are ineffective—in fact, that they work to the benefit of the criminal rather than the law-abiding citizen."

Other members of the committee were Judge Marcus Kavanaugh, Chicago; former Governor Charles D. Whitman, New York; Wade H. Ellis, Washington, D. C.; and Charles W. Tamm, St. Paul.

LAW UNRESPECTED

"The criminal situation in the United States, so far as crimes of violence are concerned, is worse than that of any other civilized country," the report said. "Here there is less respect for law. From all available sources of information, we estimate that there were more than 8500 unlawful homicides last year in this country, that in 1920 there were not less than 10000 such homicides, and that in 1900 the number fell below 5500. In other words, during the last ten years, not less than 35,000 of our citizens have been killed by the pistol or the knife, or by some other unlawful and deadly instrument."

"It is our united opinion that the means provided in the United States for coping with crimes and criminals are today neither adequate nor efficient, for example:

"First, we find that the parole and probation laws as administered very generally, fail to accept the full measure of the law, and are designed and weaken the administration of criminal justice. We recommend that the first offenders only should be eligible for probation. We recommend that the indeterminate sentence law should be modified so as to apply to first offenders only, and we believe that neither probation nor parole should be permitted those convicted of homicide, burglary, rape or highway robbery."

"Second, we find that more than 90 per cent of the murders in this country are committed by the use of pistols."

DELAYS PROBLEM

"Third, we find the causes for delays in criminal cases so varied and the conditions so differing that we hesitate to make specific recommendations. Dilatory motions and many other causes for delay, all accrue to the benefit of the lawbreaker."

"We recommend that every state be given every right to appeal now enjoyed by a defendant—except from a verdict of not guilty, and we recommend that the prosecutor in a criminal trial shall have the right to call the attention of the jury to the fact that the defendant has failed himself to contradict or deny testimony offered by the prosecution."

"We recommend that the state be given the right to amend the indictment under proper terms, in matters of form."

"We recommend that there should be but one appeal from a judgment of conviction in the trial court."

"We recommend that there be enacted legislation limiting the time during which judges or courts hold under advisement dilatory motions made in criminal trials, that at the expiration of such time, without action, such a motion shall be deemed to be denied."

TO LESSEN POWER

"Fourth, we find that in some of the states the jury is the final judge both of the law and the facts. We believe that such a condition is absolutely subversive of the government of law and we recommend the repeal of such statutes."

"Fifth, we find in various jurisdictions glaring abuses in the matter of bail, both in the amount imposed and in the sufficiency of security offered."

"Sixth, we find that further legislation should be enacted by the Congress to punish and prevent lynching and mob violence."

"Seventh, we find that more stringent laws limiting and controlling immigration should be enacted and enforced."

"Eighth, we find that the bill now pending in the Congress, increasing the number of United States district judges, and conferring powers upon the chief justice and senior circuit judges to have supervision over the work of the courts and see that the dockets are kept clear, should be enacted."

URGENT REFORM

"Ninth, no meritorious case, whether civil or criminal, that is cognizable in the courts of the country, ought to be denied the service of a state, courteous and loyal advocate. And no man or woman, however humble, ought to be able to say in any American community that justice is too expensive for the poor. We therefore urge that in every community the members of this association volunteer to aid, without fee, the worthy poor who are being oppressed, defrauded or otherwise wronged, and who have not the means to employ counsel. Tenth, first offenders must be segregated from veteran criminals, for the jails throughout the land today are breeding places for crime and the young and thoughtless, who may often be reclaimed, are taught by professional criminals to scorn the restraints of society, and in this connection we may well consider the extensiveness of psychopathic laboratories established as adjuncts to the criminal courts."

COURT REFORM UP TO CONGRESS, DECLARES TAFT

Failure in State Courts Blamed On Lack of Power For Judges.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—(By Associated Press.)—Dependence upon action of congress to effect reform to remove delays and to bring about speed in the administration of justice "has not brought the best results and some different mode should be tried," William Howard Taft, chief justice of the United States, told the American Bar Association today.

"The failure of justice in this country," said Chief Justice Taft, "especially in the state courts, have been more largely due to the withholding of power from judges over proceedings before them than to any other cause, and yet judges have to bear the brunt of criticism which is so general as to the results of present court action. The judges should be given the power commensurate with their responsibility. Their capacity to reform matters should be tried to see whether better results may not be attained. Federal judges doubtless have their faults, but they are not to be held responsible for the present defects in the administration of justice in the federal courts. Let congress give them an opportunity to show what can be done by vesting in them sufficient discretion for the purposes of their office."

DRY ACT ADDS WORK

Judge Taft said that litigation had so increased with the increase of the general business of the country that even in fields always occupied by the federal courts, the judicial force had proved inadequate. He remarked that additional burdens had followed the enactment of new statutes, particularly the Volstead act.

"But congress provides for twenty-four new district judges and one circuit judge in the fourth circuit has been reported to both houses," he continued. "It is opposed and will be considered lead to discussion, but in view of the previous votes in the two houses, it seems likely that the bill will pass before the close of this Congress."

"The new bill authorizes a judicial council of ten judges, consisting of the chief justice and the senior associate judge of each circuit, which is to meet in Washington the last Monday in September to consider reports from each district judge with a description of the business of the court, and to make a recommendation as to the extra judicial force needed in his district. The conference thus called in to consider at large plans for the ensuing year, by which the district judges available for assignment may be best used."

"ABSDURD CONDITION" ENDED

"It ends the absurd condition under which each district judge has had to paddle his own canoe and has done as much business as he thought proper."

"The members of the supreme court have become so anxious to avoid another congestion like that of the decade before 1891 that they have deemed it proper to prepare a new bill amending the jurisdiction of the supreme court and to urge its passage. It is now pending in both houses of congress. The act of 1891 introduced into the appellate system a discretionary jurisdiction of the supreme court over certain classes of cases."

"By the act of 1816 this discretionary power of the court was extended and its obligatory jurisdiction reduced, as to review of state court judgments, so that now the only question that can come by writ of error from a state court to the supreme court as a matter of course, are those in which the validity of a state statute, or authority, or a federal statute or authority under the constitution has been the subject of consideration by the state court and has been sustained in the former, or denied in the latter case. All constitutional questions arising in the federal courts, that is, in the district court or the circuit court of appeals, subject to review, may under existing law be brought to the supreme court as a matter of course."

"The new bill increases the discretionary appellate jurisdiction now vested in the Supreme court, so that no case of any kind can be taken from the Circuit Court of Appeals to the Supreme court of the United States without application for a certiorari. Obligatory appeals from all other courts subordinate to the Supreme court of the United States, except from the Federal district courts in a limited class of cases and from the state courts, are also abolished and only review by certiorari is provided."

CHANGE SUGGESTED

"What I would suggest is that now, instead of a recommendation to be appointed by the President, of two supreme court justices, two circuit court judges, two district judges and three lawyers of prominence from a list recommended by the American Bar Association, to prepare and recommend to congress amendments to the present statutes of practice and the judicial code authorizing a unit administration of law and equity in one form of civil action. The act should provide for a permanent judicial council similarly created with power to prepare a system of rules of procedure for adoption by the supreme court. Power to amend from time to time should also be given. The rules and their amendments, after approval by the court, should be submitted to congress for its action, but should become effective in six months, if congress takes no action. In this way the procedure would be more expeditious, and those most familiar with it and by those whose duty it is to enforce it. The advantage of experiment in the laboratory of the court would furnish valuable suggestions for bettering the system. The important feature of such a system is that needed action by the commission and the court will be promptly taken and the necessary delay in a congress crowded with business may be avoided."

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffers with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, are dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.—Advertisement.

WHEN Liza Lincoln was a little girl a number of relatives had come to the mountain home of her grandparents. There had been solemn conferences, she remembered, weeping and black clothes, and, after it all, she had been taken to the city with the aunt she liked least. Grammar school and high school followed, new world of student plays and pageants, and the movies.

Almost next door was the plot of one of the largest of the motion picture concerns. Famous figures of the screen were to be seen on the street and a favorite pastime of those whose parents would allow was to wait around the lots in the hope of the chance to be photographed in the crowd scenes. Liza was chosen more often than any of the others and by the time she was 18 she was on regular salary, playing minor roles. The girl who had been taken from the mountains to "earn her keep" found herself suddenly in a world of fine clothes and make-up. Even the aunt who had been so indifferent became ambitious for her success. She was bewildered and not at all certain she was happy.

A revival of interest in the days of the roaring fifties was responsible for the moving of the company to Hualapai, a deserted mining town in the Mother Lode. In heavily laden automobiles the actors and actresses descended upon the half-dozen inhabitants who remained in the place where hundreds once lived.

"The only modern things in the place," Clifton Carter, leading man, told Liza as they explored the village together, "is that telephone line and the gasoline sign on the hotel. If this isn't the home of desolation I'll smoke a herring."

"Desolation, maybe," said Liza slowly, "but don't you feel it is not despair? Rather it is a dignified and historic desolation. The men who had their homes here built their hopes on the wealth in the hills. Look, the streets are stony and honey-combed with their ditches and trenches. The fields, even, are trenched as they followed the veins, and all those rocks over there were brought into sight when water was turned on to the valley to wash away the dirt. Big fortunes have been made here. Men who crossed the plains dreaming of riches have found it and have gone. Only a few brave-hearted old men have stayed by the place that was good to them. I could be happy here, myself."

CARTER smoothed his shining hair. "You're a funny kid," he said. "You'll be playing big roles pretty soon and when the courts allow me to marry, I'll be a big man. The approach of a grinning director was a welcome interruption.

"I've made a big deal," he said, "with the old boy who runs the place he calls a hotel. I asked him what he'd charge to rent me the whole building that I might move in our own furniture. After figuring for ten minutes behind his desk he wanted to know if $25 a month would be too much?"

Next morning the company found Liza first on location. She was standing beside the ruined house which was to figure in one of the big scenes. It was built of rocks, flat on top and bottom, the untruncated edges projecting and giving the appearance of huge and fluted columns. Windows and slatted eaves were gone and the roof had fallen in. Carpenters were replacing the old boards and there were to be windows again on the side toward the camera.

"There's nothing to burn but the roof," the director remarked, "you'll have to chuck in a lot of rubbish and be generous with the oil."

"They are going to burn the house?" Liza asked Carter. "How does that come in the script?"

Carter smiled. "Old man's rules not to tell the story. You can act it better if you follow his directions without knowing what it is about." He felt the superiority of his position and was condescending in sharing a secret with the girl.

"You see, one miner is jealous of the success of another. He steals the nuggets, or the gold, or whatever it is, and burns the house. It's going to be a regular thriller, a knock-out."

WITH difficulty Liza concealed her wrath as the picture was taken. She thought of going to the director, of telling him how preposterous this story was. Picturing together the plot, filmed in scattered scenes that depicted a roistering community of whiskey-drinking conspirators against a red-shirted and bandoliered hero, she decided that any man who carried such a picture of the old mining life could never be convinced of his error. She went through her scenes and was silent.

When the picture was finished Liza collected her salary and resigned. "I've a peculiar notion," she explained to Carter, "to stay over here a week or two before I go back, and I am going to quit the pictures." No one could make her change her mind. Clifton Carter and his contingent proposal were behind her forever.

The hotel proprietor studied the girl closely and consulted with his wife. When Liza came in one evening from a walk he stammered and shifted awkwardly.

"I've noticed, Miss, you walk a lot out to the old house the pitcher people burnt, and the wife and I have been wondering."

Anticipating the question, Liza

CRIME SOLUTION SEEN IN SLAYING OF L. A. BANDITS

Police Hope For Confession of Thefts As Result of Battle With Gang.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Police and sheriff's deputies said early today they hoped to solve a number of recent crimes in and around Los Angeles through the surrender last night of J. W. Kilkenny after two of his companions had been killed and a third probably fatally wounded in an attempt to rob the Union Ice Company's office.

A posse of ten deputy sheriffs trailed the band for days and last night learned a robbery of the ice company was planned. The officers surrounded the plant, and after the men, with hankies over their faces, had taken $2000 from the safe, after forcing the night cashier to answer: "It was my grandfather's."

ter to lie upon the floor, the deputies closed in on them.

In the resultant gun battle none of the officers was wounded. Gilkey, the only one of the bandit gang not struck by bullets, was also the only one not to resist the deputies.

The officers said they hoped to obtain a detailed confession from him, not only of last night's attempted robbery, but of other crimes.

One of the dead bandits was named Kenneth Ekenol, and the other was known to the police as "Big Dick" or "Lefty Louie." The one expected to die is Edward Burton, said to have a police record in Chicago, and recently under arrest here as the alleged assailant of a motorcycle officer, who was shot and seriously injured the night of July 9.

EASTBAY HARBOR GREATEST ASSET, SAYS CANDIDATE

Waterfront Properties Are Destined to Be Industrial Center, Says Cornish.

BERKELEY, Aug. 10.—"Oakland, Berkeley, Emeryville and Albany waterfront properties are destined to be the future industrial center of the San Francisco bay and every opportunity should be grasped in starting proper development."

So declared Frank V. Cornish, for four years city attorney of this city, and one of the prime movers in improving waterfront sections in an address last night before the West Berkeley Improvement Club.

"The people on this side of the bay have unlimited facilities to make their waterfront the industrial metropolis of the entire Pacific slope, declared Cornish, candidate for state senator in the sixteenth district. "Throughout my past service as a public servant I have consistently fought for devel-

AUTOIST FACES LIQUOR CHARGE AFTER 3 WEEKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—James Baird, a carpenter, 40 years old, of 32 Cumberland street, is in the city prison charged with reckless driving and operating an auto while intoxicated, and three machines, including the coroner's ambulance, are laid up for repairs as the result, the police say.

Baird was at the wheel of his own car and ran amuck with it at Webster and Bush streets. The ambulance, in charge of Deputy Coroner Michael Brown, was first side-swiped, after which, it is charged, Baird drove his car into the automobile of George Hillinger, 1022 Hanover street. A small machine, the owner of which is unidentified, also was damaged by collision. Baird was arrested and first taken to the Central Emergency hospital for examination as to his sobriety.

RADIO THEFT PLOT CHARGED TO FIVE

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 10.—Five men, suspected of being implicated in a huge plot to steal valuable radio supplies from the North Island naval air station, are in jail here today, while government and city officers are investigating the mysterious disappearance of sixty valuable audio tubes.

The five suspects gave their names as Russell and Noel Stimpson, storage battery dealers; Arthur M. Davis, radio dealer; Milton Lewis, said to be a member of the naval air force, and John Shryock, mechanic.

Theft of the audio tubes has been going on since May, the officers declare. A check of the supplies revealed sixty tubes missing. Only eight have been recovered.

Husband's Plea To Be Forgiven Denied by Wife

Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell failed today to reconcile Captain James Smet with his wife, Agnes Smet. The husband was arrested on the complaint of his wife, who charged him with battery.

"When he struck me in the eye, he broke my heart," said Mrs. Smet.

"My love for him is dead. All that I ask, your honor, is that he be compelled to stay away from my house," said Mrs. Smet.

"Agnes, oh, please give me just one more chance," pleaded the husband as he stood in the prisoner's dock.

"It is too late. I have no love for you, and I am going to sue for divorce," the wife said.

Smet asked the court for permission to go home and get his clothes. Mrs. Smet objected to his going home, but told the court that she would wash and press his clothes and send them to him. So Smet was not allowed to go.

His case was referred to the probation officer for report on November 4. During that time he has agreed to pay his wife $30 a month for the support of himself and four small children. The wife resides at 1109 Ninth avenue.

DRY LAW AGENT FACES CHARGES

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Roy Wilmet, prohibition enforcement officer, was the center of a storm today when William P. Crowley, wealthy realty broker, of 112 Ashbury street, appeared before U. S. Commissioner Krull following the stealing of his stock of wine.

The delivery to Wilmet, under the alias of Fisher, of a quantity of champagne for $70, by Donald Crowley, 16-year-old school boy, son of William P. Crowley, while the latter and his wife were on a vacation in Oregon, formed the basis for the complaint and has led to the arrest of the officer.

Silva says that Wilmet should be prosecuted for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

According to the story told before the United States commissioner, Donald Crowley was induced, through a school boy chum and a chauffeur acting with Wilmet, to sell to the latter eleven bottles of champagne for $20. The chauffeur approached the child and told him that if it would be to get some money if they only had some liquor. Donald volunteered that his father had some wine and the deal was arranged, it is charged.

Wilmet claims that there were only four bottles of champagne and this number was turned over to Samuel Rutter, prohibition chief, when the complaint was made. Crowley senior declares that the officer was careful to come to his home and see when Donald's aunt and uncle were away one night at the theater.

DUCKS TO HAVE SQUIRREL RIVALS IN LAKE PARK

When the wild ducks arrive at Lakeside park this year on their annual southern pilgrimage they will find a rival attraction at the park. Squirrels, large ones, small ones, gray, brown, red and black, will have found their lodging places in the trees and shrubs about the lake.

Arrangements for the latest colonization plan have been completed by the Park board, which has secured the animals from Fresno county. They will arrive here in the near future.

Protection is to be afforded the newcomers and any person molesting them will be subject to arrest.

Keep your Refrigerator COLD Electrically

YOU CAN keep your refrigerator cold, and make little cubes of ice in it electrically. A real little ice plant can be attached to the refrigerator you now have. It is reasonable in cost, generally no more than you pay for the ice.

Electric Refrigerators keep food at any desired temperature, preferably at about 40 degrees. Other refrigerators keep it at about 55 degrees, at which temperature food will sometimes spoil. Electric refrigeration is automatic, uniform and unfailing. It requires no thought or attention day or night.

The little refrigerating machine requires no extra room. It will rest on top of your refrigerator, or it may be installed in the basement or other convenient place. It is easily connected in either place.

Ask your dealer in electrical appliances for further information on electric refrigeration. The P. G. and E. representative in the local office will also be glad to answer your questions.

My Favorite Stories

by IRVIN S. COBB

The Surest System Yet

When you hear a story from the man in the street and shortly thereafter go to a vaudeville theatre and hear a performer on the stage repeat it, you may know by this sign that it has undoubted merit. It is an evidence of distinction on the part of the story.

Here lately, a popular yarn of other days has been enjoying a theatrical revival. The story has to do with a man describing a poker game which he was invited to join while visiting in a strange town.

"The first hand that was dealt," he says, "I had threes. I opened the pot and one other man stayed. He drew one card. We bet back and forth for awhile and finally he called. 'I've got three of a kind,' I said, and showed down my three nines. 'I've got a straight—ten high,' he says, and pitches his hand in the deck and reaches for the chips. 'Hold on,' I says, 'I didn't see what you had.' He looks at me sort of surprised and the fellow who's givin' the party speaks up and says to me: 'This is a gentleman's game. If a man wins a pot here we never ask him to show his hand. We just take his word for it that he holds the winning cards and we let it go at that. That's our rule.'"

"Did you keep on playing after that?" asks a bystander. "Certainly I did," says the first speaker. "And did you win?" "Did I win?" Hub—the first pot was the only one I lost!"

Uncle Wiggly Stories

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE CAKES.

"UNCLE WIGGLY! Uncle Wiggly! Don't be in such a hurry!" called a voice to the bunny rabbit gentleman one day, as he was hopping through the woods.

"He! Don't be in a hurry! That's good enough advice to give providing I know who gives it," thought the bunny uncle, looking around. "But if it's the Shillies, Scallies, Alligators, or the Pispawah, I am in just as much of a hurry as ever I can be."

However, as the bunny gentleman looked along one side of his pink, twinkling nose he saw that it was Mrs. Twisttail, the pig lady, who was calling him, and not any of the bad animals who so often tried to nibble the bunny's ears.

"Oh Mrs. Twisttail!" laughed Uncle Wiggly. "I'm never in too much of a hurry to see you."

"Well, I'm in something of a hurry myself this morning," went on the pig lady. "However, I saw you hopping past and remembered I had something to say to you. Would you mind taking her this basket?" and the pig lady held out one with something inside covered by a white cloth.

"Of course, I'll take it to Nurse Jane," offered Uncle Wiggly with a smile. "Has it anything in it that might break, like eggs or toy balloons?"

"Nonsense!" laughed Mrs. Twisttail. "The basket are just some cakes. And then before she could add anything more, a voice called to Mrs. Twisttail. "Excuse me, I'm wanted on the telephone," she said quickly, giving the bunny the basket and hurrying into her house.

"All right," answered Mr. Longears. "As long as I know there are cakes in the basket I'll be careful of them. She might have told me what kind, though," he thought. However, I suppose Nurse Jane will give me some when I get to the hollow stump hollow."

Uncle Wiggly was hopping along and he was thinking that perhaps it held chocolate cakes when all of a sudden out from the bushes leaped the Fuzzy Fox. "I guess you know what I want!" growled the Fox, more to himself than to Uncle Wiggly.

"Perhaps I do," said the fox. "I have in my basket, spoils the bunny thought to tell you the truth, the cakes are not mine, but Nurse Jane's. I'll take them to her."

"Nonsense!" said the fox. "I didn't come for cakes. I came to nibble you. In since you have cakes I'll take one first and nibble you afterwards."

With that the fox leaped at Uncle Wiggly.

"Bout th' only bargain we know of these days is payin' 'em to let 'em alone," said a farmer to his neighbor. "We don't care much for anything Henry Ford says 'less it relates to autos." (Copyright, 1922)

ADVENTISTS WILL OPEN TEN-DAY ANNUAL MEET

Five Sessions Daily Arranged
For Conference; Noted
Leaders Present.

A steady stream of leaders, and delegates to the ten-day convention of the California Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists are arriving, and when the opening meeting is held this evening it is expected that practically every one of the 200 family units which have been created will be occupied. Following the opening meeting tonight, five meetings will be held each day, beginning at 6 a. m. and closing with the evening discourse, initiated with a song service each evening at 7:45. A large and well-trained choir, supplemented by an orchestra, will furnish music.

The first half of the convention, according to the leaders, is to be principally taken up by business sessions in which the furtherance of the Seventh Day Adventist church in Northern California will be the principal topic of discussion.

Delegates have been coming in from all parts of Northern California for the past few days, many are stopping at hotels, while others have quarters at the huge tent city which has been put up at East Sixteenth street and Fruitvale avenue. A new pavilion has been provided for the sessions this year. It has a seating capacity of 2500. A cafeteria also has been constructed on the ground for the convenience of those living at the tent city.

OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED.
The election of officers to serve for the coming year will be held in the principal business. Officers to be elected include a conference president and secretary as well as department secretaries.

Rev. G. W. Wells, in charge of the denomination's work in the bay cities and a large part of Northern California, in speaking of the stand to be taken by the convention on various pertinent subjects, stated:

"We believe in unhampered religious liberty and are opposed to the move now on foot for the enactment of legislation which would close parochial schools. In our opinion, parents have the privilege of sending their children to whatever school they desire and let them whatever education they think fit as long as it comes up to the standards of the state requirements. E. L. Maxwell will have charge of the discussions on this subject and following the passage of a resolution in which we will go on record opposing such legislation, he will pass the opinion on to our representatives and congressmen. The Sunday Blue Laws will also be included in the discussion on religious liberty and consideration will be distributed on that topic."

DANIELLS TO LEAD DEBATE.
Elder A. G. Daniels, who was the president of the world organization for twenty-two years, and at the World Conference in San Francisco this spring, appointed as world secretary, will be in attendance and lead the discussions and talk on world evangelism. A great portion of the latter part of the convention will be turned over to evangelism work. A study of the work being carried on at St. Helena College, the Pacific Union College, will be held as well as other educational institutions of Pacific Union. Charles Rice of St. Helena, business manager of the St. Helena Sanitarium, will be in attendance and tell of the work of that institution, which is one of the largest of its kind. A new addition costing $60,000 is just being completed there. President W. E. Nelson and R. L. House, bible teacher and dean of the college, will be in attendance and tell of the work of the school.

LEADERS ARE PRESENT.
Among the other leaders of the church who are to be in attendance at the sessions are David Voth, home mission secretary of the Pacific Union Conference; W. W. Rubie, educational secretary of the Pacific Union Conference; J. L. McElhenny, president of the Pacific Union Conference; R. D. Quinn, Tait, editor-in-chief of the "Signs of the Times," the official western paper of the church.

At the close of the meeting, Sunday, August 20, the Pacific Union Conference committee, representing the six conferences, are to hold a short session. Representatives will be in attendance, representing California, Arizona and Utah.

Later the couple, with their sons Webster and Gardwell, will leave on their summer vacation.

SAN LEANDRO

Hay Load Too Heavy, Officer Balks Two Face Charges

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 10.—Joseph Jess and Tony King of Leona Heights were arrested in this city today by Officer Joseph Brandon for conveying loads of hay over the streets in excess of the limit allowed by law. Following weighing of the two wagons, with their loads, it was found that each was 1500 pounds overweight. The two men were commanded to appear before Judge W. J. Cannon Monday afternoon in answer to charges. Following the arrest of the two offenders, police of the city were informed to keep a lookout for such law violators. Five hundred pounds to the surface inch of the wheel will be allowed, it was announced, making the average load two tons, in conformity with the four-inch steel wagon wheels. The passage of the two trucks over East Fourteenth street, in the process of repairing, caused several deep indentations on the unfinished pavement.

RETURNS FROM TRIP.
SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 10.—J. Allison Bruner, city attorney of San Leandro, returned today from a ten-day trip through portions of central California and Nevada. Mrs. J. Allison Bruner and son departed for southern California immediately preceding Bruner's return.

POLICE UNABLE TO CATCH BOYS RAIDING PLANT

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 10.—Several young boys raiding the stock of canned goods in a warehouse in the rear of the Prince Canning Company, San Leandro, brought a "phone call into the city marshal's office today for reinforcements. Members of the forces hurried to the scene, but were a trifle late. The boys, eight in number, with hands and pockets laden with canned goods, were given chase for several blocks, but their youth and speed proved too much for the officers. The boys, according to J. Perilla, superintendent of the plant, have made periodical raids on the storehouse for the past few weeks.

Plans For Hay Ride Discussed By Club

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 10.—Plans for a hay ride, to be held this month, were discussed at a meeting of the Titan club of San Leandro at St. Joseph's hall last night. A recent affair, with Niles canyon the destination, proved so successful and the subsequent demand for a repetition so strong that immediate plans were formulated. Favorable report of the progress of the social dance to be held by the local organization at St. Joseph's hall next month was made by the committee in charge.

MOTHER REGAINS KIDNAPED BOY AFTER 16 YEARS

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 10.—Cecil Brittan, kidnapped July 15, 1906, from near Walla Walla, last night rested in his own home, after Mrs. R. L. Brittan, of Soap Lake, had identified him as her son. Though Mrs. Brittan's identification of the boy, who is now 21 years old, was instantaneous, a careful check of physical characteristics with a younger brother, Robert Brittan, aged 18, was made. Nothing was found to dispute his right to the name of Cecil Brittan. As Cecil Lenighen, the boy has lived in various cities of the Pacific coast ever since he can remember. He went to school in Portland, where a couple with whom he lived gave him their name, Lenighen. He has no recollection of the kidnapping or of life with his own parents. The boy's resemblance to descriptions of Cecil Brittan was noted by G. W. Stark, with whom the boy worked in a local hotel. Stark is a graduate of a detective correspondence school.

The exact date will be decided at a special meeting of the board of trustees tomorrow afternoon.

Abandoned Machine Found By Officer

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 10.—An automobile, believed to have been stolen and abandoned, was found by Officer Ed Dyas last night on Estudillo street, near Santa Rosa avenue. The rear of the automobile was jacked up, keys were in place and one of the license plates was missing, the second one having the number 6B3973. The machine will be held until the owner calls.

Deer Hunters Kill Big Rattlesnakes

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 10.—A hunting party, consisting of Mr. Borge, Irving Moon, A. Lemke and H. Souza, returned to this city today from the Livermore hills. Although the members of the party failed to get any deer, they bore the skins of two large rattlesnakes, measuring close to six feet each. Only the intervention of a hunting dog on the trip, owned by Borge, prevented the killing of a third snake.

OIL, GAS HAZARDS TOLD AT MEETING OF FIRE CHIEFS

Fuel Constitutes Menace.
Convention Reveals; Oakland Day Coming.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—The second day's session of the annual convention of the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' Association opened today with fire department executives from every city of importance on the western seaboard in attendance. The convention will last until August 14, and is a forerunner of the international convention which will open on the following day.

One of the features of the big conclave will be Oakland day, which will be held on August 17, when all of the delegates from departments all over the world will come to Oakland, where they will be the guests of Fire Chief Sam Short of that city.

Oil and gasoline are two of the greatest fire menaces confronting the country today, it developed at the convention. So great is the danger that the Standard Oil Company refused to consider a visit by the convention delegates to its plant at Richmond, for fear that in smoking, a carelessly thrown cigarette stub might start disaster.

CITIES ENDANGERED.
Every city from Los Angeles to San Francisco, Chief R. J. Scott of Los Angeles said, has its menace in oil tanks, gasoline tanks, or gasoline delivery tanks, all of which are charged with potential ruin.

A subject left over from last year's convention at Victoria was that of over-insurance. At the present time there is nothing to prevent persons from insuring in different companies. Many fires are started to collect insurance, other property is destroyed as well and firemen lose their lives through the greed of individuals in an effort to collect insurance, it was asserted.

The proceedings of the convention got under way promptly at 8:30 o'clock yesterday. The address of welcome was made by Mayor James Rolph, Jr.

"We get a thrill every time we hear the clang of the fire alarm," said the mayor, "and we feel proud of our chief, as I am sure other cities are of theirs, and we feel comfortable and confident that under their able management our homes and properties and the lives of our families will be safeguarded."

Already a number of the delegates from other lands to the big convention, which opens next week, are beginning to arrive in the city. Some were introduced yesterday at the opening of the Pacific Coast conclave, and among them were Chief N. Ogata of Tokyo, Japan; Chiefs L. Z. Tsue and Y. Q. Hsu of Shanghai, China, who arrived last week, and Chief Thurston of Honolulu.

HOUSE LEADERS TO FORCE VOTE ON FORD OFFER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Democratic leaders in the House intended when it reassembles next Tuesday to renew their efforts to force an agreement upon a date for a vote on Henry Ford's proposal to lease and purchase Muscle Shoals.

Representative Garrett of Tennessee, Democratic leader, has declined in the negotiations which were in progress looking to a gentleman's agreement for a series of three-day recesses that he would not give his consent to such a recess plan unless the Republican leaders were willing to fix a date when a vote could be held on the Ford offer.

Notices have already been sent to all Democratic members of the House urging them to be in attendance when sessions are resumed next week, and it is understood that Representative Garrett plans to avail himself of every opportunity to force the Muscle Shoals question upon the attention of the House.

Danish Savant Comes to Study With Vollmer

BERKELEY, Aug. 10.—The latest student in Police Chief August Vollmer's scientific police school in this city is Dr. J. Mollerup Thompson, Danish criminologist, seeking information for police officials of his native country.

Dr. Thompson is the discoverer of a new criminal identification code by which trans-oceanic messages can be transmitted to aid in the speedy apprehension of a fugitive from justice. Dr. Thompson has arranged, by the process of combination, a code system that eliminates the intricacies entailed in broadcasting the description of a criminal.

The Danish criminologist will return to his native land upon completing his course in Berkeley. The report he plans to file will serve as a nucleus to improved methods to be installed in the Danish police system.

The building will include community, waiting, recovery and rest rooms as well as offices of the center and social service board.

EDEN TOWNSHIP SHOW OPENED IN COLORFUL BLAZE

HAYWARD, Aug. 10.—The Eden Township Farm Products show was inaugurated and the reign of Queen Pauline began last night in a blaze of lights, color and music. One of the largest crowds ever assembled in Hayward lined B street to witness the opening parade, crowded the show grounds plaza to witness the coronation, and filled the two big tents that house the farm produce and industrial and poultry exhibits.

The parade was started at 8 o'clock with the explosion of a huge bomb. An hour later the queen and her court took up their station on the platform. Following an address by M. J. Madison, president of the board of directors of the show association, Mayor John L. Davie of Oakland crowned the queen. Mayor Davie, on his arrival, was minus his usual red cap. Noticing this, a small girl in the audience rushed to the platform, thrust a large, beautiful carnation, such as is grown in Hayward, upon him, and before her identity could be learned, disappeared in the crowd.

Among the guests of honor last night were Mayor Davie, Chief of Police James T. Drew of Oakland and a staff of officers; R. A. Kolze, chairman of the Hayward city board of directors; Mrs. Ruth L. Rogers, J. L. Wilbur and F. J. Cunha, members of the board.

The parade was pronounced one of the most successful ever held here. Additional lights furnished by power companies, added by numerous houses, made the procession most impressive. Drill teams from practically every local and fraternal organization were entered.

A feature of tonight at the show will be the pageant for which local girls have been training for months, under direction of Mrs. Carol Kelly and Miss Marie Zabala. The costumes of the children is remarkable, and some of the best juvenile dancers of the East are included in the cast.

Inspection of farm produce, farm equipment and poultry exhibit began in earnest today. Corn standing twelve feet high has been banked on the four corners of Castro and streets removed from the show by a generous exhibitor in order that the passing crowds may be attracted to the grounds. Other products are large in comparison remain within the tents. The poultry and pigeon shows in particular contain stock which has attracted the greatest amount of interest.

CAR STOLEN, LOOTED. ALAMEDA, Aug. 10.—M. H. Weller, 3360 Farfax avenue, lost his car, a 1921 Ford, last night at 11 o'clock. At 11 o'clock the Alameda police recovered the car on the Bay Farm island levee. The thieves had stripped it of everything removable.

HAYWARD

HAYWARD, Aug. 10.—Eden Township of the membership of the Hayward Gold Club to sixty instead of fifty members because of the number of applications. The club is now in the process of organizing a new club to be made up of wives and daughters of the members. Plans for the erection of a club house and the formation of an auxiliary club to be made up of wives and daughters of the members are being made. It is expected that work on plans and estimates for the club house will be started before the end of the year.

It is expected that a decision as to the site of the course will be reached by the end of this week. The club is negotiating for land owned by J. P. Silliman in Castro Valley, with an alternate offered by L. B. Parsons also in Castro Valley. The course, Larkley said, will be patterned after the Paso Robles course, rolled travel will be used instead of lawn for the green, and the rough will be constructed by plowing and grading.

Plans for the erection of a club house and the formation of an auxiliary club to be made up of wives and daughters of the members are being made. It is expected that work on plans and estimates for the club house will be started before the end of the year.

HAYWARD MAN WILLING TO FACE WIFE'S CHARGES

Return of H. F. Cook For Trial On Desertion Case Awaits Arrangement.

A cablegram was received by District Attorney Ezra Duto this morning from Captain of Detectives McDuffie of Honolulu, stating that Herbert Francis Cook, wanted here on a charge of wife desertion, was willing to return voluntarily and face trial.

The cablegram read: "Cook will return; he is broke; six passage with Pacific Mail, San Francisco. If the family cannot furnish the money the district attorney will proceed with extradition papers and send a man to bring Cook back."

Cook and his companion, Morris E. Brazil, both prominent men of the Hayward district, are alleged to have deserted their wives some weeks ago and boarded a boat for Honolulu in company with two San Francisco girls, traveling in each instance as man and wife. On the complaint of Cook's wife he was held by the Honolulu authorities when the boat docked there Tuesday last, while Brazil, who was traveling under an assumed name, was not molested. Duto had previously wired McDuffie in Honolulu to see if Cook would return of his own accord and, if so, to put him on the next boat and he would be met by agents of the district attorney's office upon his arrival at San Francisco.

According to the law county money cannot be used to return Cook as long as he is willing to return voluntarily as there is no definite charge against him. If the money cannot be raised by the family extradition proceedings will be started immediately, according to Duto.

The club instructed its permanent water committee to secure further information of the matter and present it at a future meeting. Last night's action was taken following a study of the plan as submitted by the mayor.

Council Passes Redwood Peak Bill for Election

Citizens to Vote On Bond Issue of $538,000 August 29.

Final passage of an ordinance placing before the voters the proposition of a $538,000 bond issue for the purchase of Redwood Park, was accomplished by the city council at today's session. The adoption of the measure means that at the primary election August 29, citizens of Oakland will have an opportunity to vote on the question of acquiring the redwood grove as a public park.

Acting upon a report filed by Chief of Police James Drew, the council revoked the soft drink license of A. Pellegrini, 919 Fifty-fourth street. In his report Chief Drew said: "The soft drink establishment has been a source of annoyance to this department for some time, the proprietor having been arrested several times for violation of the national prohibition act, and the place is a menace to the neighborhood in general."

Referring to a reported shooting affray at the place last night Chief of Police Drew's report said that the police officers investigating the affair were "unable to obtain a satisfactory report from him as to the cause."

Harry G. Williams, auditor and assessor, filed a request with the council for an executive secretary and ex-officio assessor who shall be exempt from the civil service rules and control. He pointed out that such an office has been created in the departments of public works and streets, and it was proposed for the department of health and safety. The communication was referred to the mayor.

The council then adopted a resolution creating the position of executive secretary for the department of public health and safety, the vote being unanimous on this action.

Two appropriation ordinances were passed, one for $3000 for private police investigations and the other for $1000 to be used in entertaining delegates to the fire chief convention upon the occasion of their visit to this city.

The council confirmed a lease of city property near the Livingston street wharf and adjoining the S. T. Johnson Company's plant to that company for a period of fourteen years. The monthly rental for the first five years is to be $40; for the second five year $45, and for the balance of the lease $50. The lot is 150 feet by 150 feet and is to be used for additions to the Johnson plant.

Plans and specifications were adopted for the improvement of San Carlos avenue from Forty-seventh avenue northwesterly. Private tests were called for hearing on improvement work on Thirty-sixth avenue, between East Fourteenth street and the Foothill Boulevard; Beacon street, from Lakeshore avenue southeasterly; and First street, from the western line of Oak street to Fallon street. No protestants appeared at the meeting.

Commissioner Colburn filed a report that the gas experiment started at 322 Twenty-fourth street, against which protests had been filed on the grounds that it constituted a nuisance, has been inspected and steps taken to abate such features as might constitute a nuisance.

MORRISON WILL STYLED FORGERY BY STATE EXPERT

Document, Which Miss Scott Claims Gave Her Estate, Is Discredited.

That the document purported to be the last will and testament of Leon Morrison, Oakland clothing merchant, who died some time ago, in which he leaves his entire estate to an employee, Miss Marion Scott, is a forgery was the statement made by Milton Carlson, handwriting expert, to the Attorney-General's office, in a report filed in Sacramento yesterday.

The document, which Miss Scott claims to have received through the mails, has been under investigation by Carlson, who came up from Los Angeles at the summons of Attorney-General U. S. Webb. Webb is an intervenor in the case on behalf of the state, due to the fact that if the purported document held by Miss Scott is proven forged, the estate of the clothing merchant will revert to the state.

The present incident is another phase of the case involving the estate of the aged merchant, who died apparently without kin or heirs.

At the time of his death last June Miss Scott, formerly a cashier for Morrison, claimed that she had in her possession a will in which he left his entire estate of $100,000 or more to her, but that it had mysteriously disappeared. Later Miss Scott claims that she received the document now in question through the mails. It was forgered, according to the testimony of Miss Scott, that the aged merchant asked her to marry him on his death bed and promised to leave all his belongings to her.

SHIFTING WINDS AID FIGHTERS IN FOREST FIRE

Flames in Santa Lucia Mountains Swept Back Over Burned Area.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Aug. 10.—A change in the wind yesterday turned the forest fire in the Santa Lucia range of mountains, near here, back over the ground that it had already swept, with the result that some 200 fire-fighters under the direction of W. V. Mendenhall of the United States forest service, were enabled to hold the flames in check. Mendenhall expressed the belief that, barring unforeseen contingencies, the fire could be controlled without extending greatly beyond the 20,000 acres already burned.

Notwithstanding this improved situation, the forest service continued to draft workers yesterday, truckload after truckload, to relieve the exhausted workers and to keep the situation in hand.

It was announced that the forest service had established the cause of the fire. A hunter, whose name was undisclosed, started it by failing to exercise proper care in extinguishing a camp fire. Mendenhall said that as soon as the more pressing business of controlling the fire was disposed of he would seek a federal warrant for the hunter's arrest.

Two smaller fires in this vicinity were reported so well under control that they were not giving the forest service any further anxiety.

MISSOULA, Mont., Aug. 10.—The fire burning on Twin creek on the Clearwater forest has jumped in size and last night was burning over 1200 acres of green, merchantable timber. This is the most serious blaze in the district, say officials at headquarters. This blaze is as yet inaccessible and a trail is being built to it. Two new fires were reported yesterday, one of them at Quartz, about 40 miles west of Missoula, and the other at St. Regis. The McCormick creek blaze, 30 miles west of Missoula, is burning over 50 acres and is being fought by lumberjacks.

NELSON, B. C., Aug. 10.—Forest fires at South Sloon yesterday destroyed 1,500,000 feet of rough timber and an old mill in the yard of Watts & Son. The fire was kept from spreading to a stand of valuable

GIRL ACQUITTED IN CONSPIRACY AS RUM RUNNER

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Edith Stevens, 19, was acquitted yesterday on a charge of conspiring to violate the Volstead act. The young woman, who was accused of engaging in a rum running plot and as a conspirator with Anthony Cassese, was alleged to have superintended the loading of a cargo of liquor on his yacht in the Bahamas, smiled when the jury verdict was announced, and asked the court's permission to say a few words. "It didn't pay," she said. "I was the old story and I was deceived. Virtue and honor are more precious than money. I hope that my experience will be a warning to other young girls who may be induced to throw away those good things for a good time."

STATE.

Martin Johnson's thrilling "Jungle Adventures," which opens at the State theater Sunday, for a week's engagement, is declared the most unusual motion picture novelty of the year. The film tells of the exploration trip of the famous traveler and his wife into the heart of the British North Borneo jungle.

Beside the Johnson picture, a well varied five-act vaudeville show has been booked, topped by Mabel Stowell and her syncopated melonious revue. Lillian Steele is also bringing with her a company in "Love Lessons," a romantic satire in which song, comedy and dances are blended. The balance of the bill includes Barton and Sparkling in "Spot It Now," Fletcher and Pasquale, sons of jazz, and the Theodore trio in some aerial and novelty doings.

This week is seeing Bert Lytell on the screen in "The Face Between," with Phil Adams and his big girl act topping the varieties.

NEW CHIMES

"The Golden Snare," declared by many to be James Oliver Curwood's best and most thrilling story of the far north, will be the screen attraction at the New Chimes theater today and tomorrow.

Lewis S. Stone is the featured player. He will be seen once more in his favorite role—that of a Northwest mounted policeman. Ruth Renick has the feminine lead.

The scenes of this gripping story are laid among the picturesque wastes of the Arctic barrens. The plot involves the hunt for a madman of the north and the discovery of a golden-haired princess in the wilderness.

ORPHEUM

Under the local management of W. A. Russo, "Alibi's" Irish "Rose," the famous Oliver Morris comedy, will be presented at the Orpheum theater for a week's engagement beginning next Sunday. All of the ingredients necessary to the successful comedy, it is said, are to be found in "Alibi's" Irish "Rose." The author has taken two characters, an Irish girl and a Jewish lad and has built around them a most amusing series of situations. Rosemary Murphy and Albi Levy met in France while both were doing war duty, and a Methodist minister tied the nuptial knot. When Albi brings home his darling wife and introduces her as Rosie Murphy, there is no suspicion on the part of his parents that she is a Gentile.

In the cast are Billy Fay, Harry G. Keenan, Philip Ryder, Barbara Brown, O. Lederer, Helen Grossman, Jack Branks and Harold Shubert.

AUDITORIUM

If there is one man in America who knows how to put a laugh on paper, it is George Ade. If there is one man in Oakland who knows how to put a laugh across the footlights, it is Ferris Hartman. If there is one man in America who knows how to interpret real melody, it is Paul Steinhardt, and the Oakland theatergoers will be congratulated that this quartet have joined hands in "The Sho-Gun," the comic opera production offered at the Auditorium theater this week.

Among those whose work stands out in the performance is Lillian Faulkner Glaser, the prima donna, who is captivating in the role of widow of the former ruler of the island of Kachoo. Casting aside the habits of the old miser in "The Chimes of Normandy," Hartman has the up-to-date role of a modern go-get-on salesman, Louis Fitz Roy is doubling this week, first as the Sho-Gun, ruler of Kachoo, and later as a Korean priest. Announcement is made of the matinee on Saturday.

NEPTUNE BEACH

Thousands were thrilled at Neptune Beach yesterday by the performance of the Aerial Thompsons, a man and a woman, who ride a bicycle over a taut wire ninety feet above ground. The Thompsons will repeat their daring act every afternoon this week.

Aquaplaning behind the fastest motor boat on the bay in the surf off Neptune Beach next Sunday will be the feature free attraction at the Alameda beach resort.

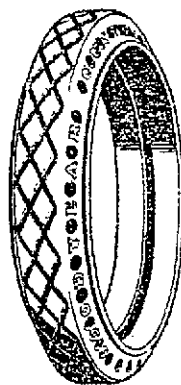

Tomorrow afternoon the fifth annual "Black Jack" day will be held at Neptune.

The smallest live horse in captivity is on exhibition at Neptune Beach.

RAINS AT PORTLAND. PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 10.—A light shower fell here yesterday, the first since June 21.

FULTON

Laughter and lots of it accompany Howard Hickman's new comedy drama, "Scrubby," which this week is being presented for the first time on any stage at the Fulton theater, with the famous Bessie Barriscale in the title role. Hickman snatches the leading role, playing opposite Miss Barriscale, as the rich clubman. Henry Shumer as the rich stock broker, Lora Rogers as his wife, Vaughan Morgan and John Ivan as rich clubmen who stir up trouble or add laughs to some of the scenes. Helen Audiffred, Ruth Ormsby and other members of the Fulton players add interest in supporting roles. Next week the Fulton will present James Gleason, the popular former Oakland idol, who won a name on Broadway in the stage version of the famous best seller, "Main Street."

AMERICAN

The combined talents of George Ade, the famous American humorist, and Thomas Meighan have created a screen epic in "Our Leading Citizen," which is being shown at the American theater this week in celebration of the fifth anniversary of the show house's opening in Oakland.

Filled with the quaint characteristics of the townships of the Middle West, "Our Leading Citizen" has been declared by critics to be as typical a presentation of the same locale as was the famous "Zerkow," "Main Street." Meighan is supported by an all-star cast including Theodore Roberts, Lois Wilson and others.

The American's double bill for the week commencing Saturday includes "The Man From Home," a screen adaptation of Booth Tarkington's novel with James Kirkwood and Anna Q. Nilsson, and "The Oracle," a sensational drama featuring Agnes Ayres.

CENTURY

Another success is accredited Jack Russell and his company at the Century this week in their new musical comedy revue, "Miss Lulu." The laugh lines seem to crowd one almost on top of another while a colorful assortment of song numbers and novelty acts gives the Century theater beauty chorus plenty of opportunity both on the stage and the illuminated crystal runway.

Next week's revue, "The Social Whirl," which will open Sunday, promises to be one of the most elaborately costumed and staged productions yet offered by the Russell company. An entire new wardrobe for the chorus and principals has been designed.

NEW BROADWAY

Gouverneur Morris "Yellow Men and Gold" thrbbing with an adventure that rivals "Treasure Island" is announced as part of the New Broadway theater's program today and tomorrow. "The Rainbow" with Alice Calhoun as the star, is the second attraction on the same bill.

"Yellow Men and Gold" is a story of two rival hands of treasure seekers set out to find a Spanish galleon sunk 300 years ago laden with riches.

"The Rainbow" is a romantic comedy with a plot away from the better path.

Viola Dana follows Saturday in "Glass Houses," and Zane Grey's production, "Golden Dreams" is part of a big double program for Sunday and Monday.

PANTAGES

The tallest men in the world will thump their way across the Pantages stage during the Bobby Pander act, which is booked as a headliner at that theater, commencing Sunday afternoon. Their "tallness" is made possible by the use of stilts, some so long that the man on the upper end finds himself almost hidden in the stage draperies.

Tragedy is to dance when O'Hannon, Zambonini and Ilvira present their dramatic pantomimes, "In Seville."

Phil Coscia and Al Vardi introduce a generous amount of songs and gingers in their song number, "James Thornton," a monologist, says claim only to the title of "Jester," but is said to be a show by himself. The Pettit troupe of acrobats and the comedy and serials complete the bill.

T. and D.

At the T. & D. theater this week is presented Richard Barthelmess' latest first National picture, "Sonny." Besides being clever in plot construction and novelty of idea, "Sonny" stands as an extraordinarily fine piece of dramatic art.

On the same program with "Sonny" appears Larry Semon's "A Pair of Kings." Corinne Griffith in "Divorce Coupons," a story of a girl who marries for money, and a novelty in stage presentations in the form of a "flapper's" contest. The contest is open to all misses who rate themselves as "flappers" and more interesting as the week progresses and more and more of the "flapper" tribe become interested and decide to make public appearances on the stage as contestants.

FRANKLIN

Colleen Moore and Richard Dix in "The Wall Flower" is causing approval at the Franklin theater this week. On the same program is a Salmick photoplay, "Concetti," with an all-star cast. It deals with the snobbish element, both rich and poor.

Colleen Moore in "The Wall Flower" has outdone her former star offerings. Though a comedy, it has a wisp or two for the gentler sex and forces a lump in the throats of the masculines at least on one occasion.

Starting next Saturday "Rich Men's Wives" with one of the largest cast lists of actors, including House Peters, Rosemary Theby, Gaston Glass and Claire Windsor, will be the Franklin's feature.

HARDING VICTORY

New and solid support is given to President Harding and the administration with the returns from Ohio. Carmi A. Thompson, of Cleveland, who has won the Republican nomination for governor of the state which has made so many presidents, was strongly supported by the Administration and by the Anti-Saloon League. He has won by a margin which is emphatic and informative.

In the senatorial race Simeon D. Fess, until recently chairman of the Republican National Congressional Committee, has won handily in a field of four. The "Progressive" candidate who conducted one of the most spectacular campaigns Ohio has seen, came second.

It may be noted by those who look to the results in various states to see in which direction the wind is blowing that Fess and Thompson were the avowed Administration candidates and each had the support of the Anti-Saloon League. Ohio always has had a strong "dry" vote; it was there the W. C. T. U. was organized. It is also to be noted that the successful Democratic candidate for senatorial nomination was opposed by the dries, and all of the Democratic candidates for governor had their support.

There is one outstanding contribution to be drawn from the returns and that is the voters of Ohio, President Harding's home state, have welcomed the opportunity to give him their endorsement.

All who are "good sports" in the way of acknowledging a point that is made from an unpopular quarter must credit Mexico with scoring. In the savage massacre at Herrin, Illinois, two of the victims were Mexicans. A note of protest has been received from the Mexican government, regarding this unlawful killing of her subjects. Considering the official protests and unofficial comment from our government on incidents that have been the other way around this is interesting. Perhaps it will, tone down that air of superiority assumed by some on this side of the line when considering relations with the neighboring country. Few of the events which this country has felt it incumbent to protest have been more brutal than the massacre at Herrin.

TO MAKE KNOWN THE STORY.

In raising $100,000 to advertise Greater California, San Francisco has accomplished, in one brief campaign, more than all of the other "movements" and "drives" directed at the same end. The money for a start on the program of publicity which will make known to the world what this part of the state has in produce and attractions has been raised.

The fact that close to a half million dollars could be pledged, and in so short a time, is proof of the newer realization of the responsibilities of the metropolitan areas in this forward movement, of recognition of what is to be gained, and of willingness to serve. When this $400,000 is spent more money will be needed. By that time the proof will be had with the padding and a city community will see its value.

San Francisco volunteered to start this new program and it has announced plans which should make for success. A survey is to be made of Northern and Central California. General claims as to position, soil, and products are to be reduced to figures. Each county will be advertised for the things it produces in greatest abundance and excellence. The time will come when the whole region affected will contribute to the fund and consider the payments its most valuable investment.

There has been a good deal of criticism of the probation law. Many instances have been cited where its provisions have been extended with results widely at variance from those which were expected, but none so glaring as that of Walter Castor. Two months before he was the cause of the tragedy in which one detective officer was shot and killed, another desperately wounded, a woman murdered—and himself a suicide—he was granted probation by a San Jose magistrate after conviction of burglary against the protest of the prosecuting officer and the sheriff of the county and in face of the fact that he had served a penitentiary term for manslaughter. It was an accentuated instance which is likely to bring a revision of the law which has been so much under fire.

HOW PADGETT STOOD.

A few days ago when the news columns carried the story of the death of Congressman Lemuel Padgett of Tennessee there were many in California who were reminded of the conscientious public servant who took prominent part in the investigations and deliberations of two Congressional bodies which came here to study the naval base problem. On the former occasion, under a Democratic Administration, he was chairman of the joint Naval Affairs Committee. Later he came as one of the members. He was present at every hearing, investigated every site offered, and allowed illness and fatigue to keep him away from nothing save the formal social affairs tendered the committee.

The consistency of this Democratic Congressman was revealed again when he stood with President Harding, and against the efforts of fellow Democrats to reduce the naval personnel below the figure which the President and department regarded as unwise. Although most of his party voted for the cut, Padgett opposed it, declaring his experience as former head of the naval committee convinced him the country could not afford to "go as low" as the framers of the bill had contemplated.

The gentleman from Tennessee was not willing to play politics with the navy. He had convictions on the subject and he knew the President was right. So Lemuel Padgett, who has followed naval affairs with a patriotic zeal and whose son fought with the American Navy in the World War, refused to let party arguments turn him from his position.

Congressman Padgett will be remembered for the painstaking zeal he exercised in getting at the facts of every case, for the information he possessed regarding the Navy, and for his high ideals.

ACROSS A BREAKFAST TABLE

This premiers' conference in London, aside from being one of the most important meetings in history, is becoming one of the most interesting. There is enough of guess work, door-slammings, and soft walking about it to make speculation more rife than ever.

Poincare, heated and excited, throws up both hands and says everything is impossible, unless—Lloyd George opens the door of Num. 10 Downing street just the moment another that he might purr to the porch full of reporters, "everything is going splendidly. We hope to reach an agreement." Rumors fly from all the doors and windows. No pastepots nor ink-well have been involved.

One reads England has agreed to Allied control of the Ruhr District and to the French suggestion regarding the collection of twenty-six per cent of the German exports at her frontiers, a sum to be paid into the reparation funds, and doesn't wonder so much at the concession as to what will be asked in return. Will the cancellation of debts be proposed tomorrow?

When it is proposed will it be over coffee and toast with Poincare and Lloyd George tucking their slippers under the table?

There are many roads to fame. The most intriguing one seems to be that traversed by the conquering hero at the head of an army, though the genius who confers on the world great benefits by his discoveries or achievements gets his meed of praise, somewhat belated, mayhap. But the man who comes through by way of being the champion crawfish eater has found a new and novel path. When it is learned from the detail that he consumed five bucketfuls, weighing sixty pounds, it will be seen that his bid for a niche is not without some pretense to consideration. That he has been started on his way by a considerable despatch on the front page augurs that there is a show of getting there.

These bay communities consider themselves honored in the presence of the Vice President of the United States, and hope that on his first visit he is reasonably impressed. He can be assured that his course since he has become a national figure, and as far back of that as there is a popular record, has greatly impressed loyal Americans hereaway. And they are encouraged by his optimistic tone, his expressed belief that the somewhat murky political sky will soon clear. They recognize in him one who considers his responsibilities seriously; who is able to meet emergencies manfully, and who has faith in the triumph of the better efforts of humanity.

The news that a rupture of the Entente is not only possible but probable is not reassuring. Yet the statement to that effect on the authority of Premier Lloyd George gains for it grave consideration. The difficulty lies in the implacable attitude of France. Her bitterness against Germany and fear for the future can be understood, but in the prostrate conditions of European nations cannot be sustained as an entente policy. It is regarded as more important that further war cataclysms and possible world chaos be warded off than that France shall perpetually have the last farthing and provision of her reparation.

Within a garden plot
To sit and dream,
Where real is not
And all things merely seem.
Where purple perfumes practice
Before the eyes
And pole magnets skies
Loop softly down
O'er the brown earth.
But, is it brown?
Who can be certain what he sees
Is true?
Who can be sure the truth is what he sees?
Who knows the brown from black
Or 'e'en that trees
Grow root below and leaf above?
He sees, ah, yes, he sees,
But does not know.

Ah, all ye kindred souls,
Seek some fair garden plot
Where ye can know content,
Mid agile perfumes blent
To perfect seeming thought
That yet is not!

Come out of the garden, Clementina,
The purple perfumes will get you.

All for you.

The beer seems colder,
The garlic more poignant
Even the flowers raise their Pretty heads.

The spaghetti gets more, shag
And the asparagus gets all covered
With mayonnaise.
Yes, all for you.
That's why
I love you so—
You get such good service!

The plan may work with Archie

The New Champion
One reason for haste in filling the Almanac today is we intend to rush out to the telegraph office, while there is time, and send a congratulatory note to H. B. Chase, Jr., of New Orleans. He is the newest crawfish champion of the world.

To be a crawfish champion one must be able to pluck, peel and swallow more crawfish than any one else. Chase took his stand by the steaming wash boiler, thrust his hardened fist into the hot water, and ate his way to fame.
Perhaps there have been greater deeds than his, maybe in the days of old when men stood up in nights and drove four-horse carriages around the crowded ovals there were moments of great excitement. We doubt it.

We can imagine this champion, eating calmly, deliberately and with high intent. We are breathing less as we picture him munching his way past the redoubtable Hop
Luthy, champion of vieux carre, and edging close to the heels and the peels of Percy Visco, the greatest crawfish eater Cabildo ever saw.

Visco, is overtaken! They are neck and neck, and old and slow.
The race settles down to a steady and molar grind. Visco chokes and Chase smiles. The buckets are emptying and the shells hide the shoes of the athletes. This cannot last forever. Sooner or later one must falter, one must cry "enough!"
It is Visco! The race is won with faint gasps of green. He tries to smile. A brave man and an honor to the crawfish eaters, is Visco. Words fail him. He is too full for utterance. Comes a gasp of surrender. There is a new champion! Ah, well, 'tis better so.
One man cannot pause too long in light of fame without stealing from ambitious youth an opportunity.

Bands and brave music for the victor! They are riding him on shoulders and his name is repeated to the children in the houses. H. B.
Chase, Jr., the crawfish champion, looks from lithographs in all of the windows. And Visco? Back to Cabildo he must take defeat. One must feel sorry for Visco. And for H. B. Chase, Jr. There is no telling how ill they may be today.

Come on, O' Hoss
Man named Dobbins is running for district attorney of Solano county.

"The bobbed head must go."
Where, may one ask, is a bobbed head, go? Grow, would seem to be the word.
—AD SCHUSTER.

A BUMPER CROP OF VOTERS.

NOTES and COMMENT

Boston Transcript: "It seems one of the ironies of fate that the house where William Taylor Adams, Oliver Optic, lived for fifty years, and where he wrote his famous stories, is to be delivered into the hands of the building wrecker at the very time of the one-hundredth anniversary of the author's birth. The centennial fell on July 30. Instead of elaborate celebration of the occasion, the date was marked by the progress attained in converting the once-noted homestead into piles of lumber and second-hand brick."

According to the Brooklyn Eagle the question of tunnels vs. bridges is to the fore there as well as here. "Controller Craig opposes Commissioner Whelan's plan for a new East River bridge and suggests as a substitute the construction of two tunnels for the accommodation of the traffic which must be taken off the Brooklyn bridge, and also to relieve the Manhattan and Williamsburg bridges of some portion of their traffic. The Controller's argument rests on the difference in construction costs. He thinks that the bridge project would involve an undue outlay of public funds."

The Oregonian is dubious: "Nature fakers everywhere will demand proof from Hood River of the killing of a snake with thirty-five rattles and an inscription on its back bearing the date '1918'."

Chicago News: "An ultimatum from Dictator Will Hays is said to have caused a prominent film star to dismiss her divorce proceedings. Good enough so far as it goes. But will it take it from Flo that he has not faced the acid test till he tries to stop a movie wedding?"

SPIRIT OF STATE PRESS

Proof of the statement made by Jumbo dealers that the cost of building has receded to reasonable levels is found by a study of the list of building permits issued in Palo Alto since January 1. The number of residences for $4000 and amounts approximating that figure which the list includes is quite extensive. It was not so many months ago that the construction of a desirable house for such a figure would have been impossible.—Palo Alto Times.

A large proportion of those who live in crime are never apprehended. Of those who are caught many are created by high-pressure agents, aided and abetted by the sob sisters of the press and female sympathizers. A small remainder are actually put behind the bars, if they do not win immediate probation. The problem of crime today would be simplified if the laws themselves and the courts and lawyers were right.—Watsonville Register.

During the war there was nothing too petty for Reed to hang his name on. The effort to conserve food, for instance, as suggested by Mr. Hoover, was the occasion of a Senatorial diatribe. Throughout the war Hoover's every effort in behalf of the country was the signal for an assault by Reed. This paper believes in government by the Democratic party, but not in government by such men as Senator Reed.—Bakersfield Californian.

The president of the Alameda County Jurors' association endorses Dr. Osler's theory. She has never seen a male juror under forty years of age. She declares that "juries need to be rejuvenated." It might help some.—Reading Searchlight.

Republicans have a tremendous majority in the California registration. But it is doubtful whether there ever has been a time when old-time party feeling was at a lower ebb.—Sacramento Bee.

We are a nation which stands for right and justice. But we fear both are in rather a scrambled condition today. THE PURPOSE.

Ten thousand born to hew and haul,
To dig the trench and build the wall,
Face dreary duties day by day,
Fashion the steel and mold the clay,
Bear sorrow's hurt and failure's blow,
Summer's hot sun and winter's snow,
Keen disappointment's bitter sting,
And seek through life's long wandering
What oft but very vague appears,
The purpose of man's term of years.

Stripped of the pomp of outward pride,
In city walls, by country side,
All men piece out of pain and strife
Some patchwork of the joy of life.
A few to leadership attain,
But most of us uncheered remain,
Beating the duties of the day,
Checking the years that pass away,
Adding our little mites unto
The work mankind is called to do.

What do we reap from all the years
Of strife and bitterness and tears?
A bit of laughter—here and there,
A ribbon for the wife to wear,
Her smile of welcome and of care,
These are the threads of happiness,
True friends whose voices ring with cheer
Make sweet the days of toiling here.

And it passes a baby's smile
Mingles every hour of care worth while.

We should regret a baby's birth
If care and anguish ruled the earth.

Yet world-wide o'er smiles of joy
Welcome new-born girl or boy
Into this realm of life where tears
And pain and burdens scar the years.

Because, with all we've known and met,
The trials that have made us fret,
Life to the human race is sweet.

Why Stones May Form in Kidneys—Aids to Relief

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.,
Commissioner of Health, New York City.

There are a few causes of bodily suffering which are really not diseases at all. They may be things which have resulted from disease, but the effects are as foreign to the body as if they had been produced miles away. Stone in the kidney is one such.

The scientific name for this condition is "renal calculus," or, to use a very big name, "nephrolithiasis." Some of these stones are due to chemical or mineral deposits in the kidney. Other forms are a result of infection within the kidney.

Neither condition is inevitable. Diet and living both may be avoided.

Let us consider these stones: First, we will discuss the first form, coming from deposits in the kidney. The first essential is high acidity of the urine.

What causes excessive acidity? In my experience, the condition is a great factor. It is a big mistake to tolerate chronic constipation. It isn't necessary to do so. Proper diet and right living will correct this trouble.

Sedentary habits, alcoholism, excessive meat eating and obesity tend to acidity of the urine. Wrong eating may supply the chemicals necessary for stone formation. Large quantities of sugar and fats are bad.

Acid fruits are given usually as a reason for acid urine. I doubt this. But everything which tends to acidity should be given attention.

If there is acidity, the salts appear to deposit more readily. Add to this tendency a diet or drink which carries quantities of minerals and the conditions are favorable for stone formation.

In some localities the drinking water is impregnated with lime. This is a fact. It is a big mistake to tip the surface of a glass pitcher and there will be left a deposit of lime where every drop fell. The lime content of this drinking water must be an important factor in forming stone.

The second form comes from some sort of infection which may be an extension from below or above. As in the gall-bladder, there may be stony deposits forming diseases of the tissues.

There may be no symptoms, even though the stones have been present for years. Then suddenly there may be a terrific attack of colic. This is caused by the parasites which the stones have passed into the bladder.

The doctor is needed, but the pain is so severe that common humanity demands doing something even before he arrives.

Place the victim in a tub of hot water, hot as can be borne. Heat has a relaxing effect upon contracting tissues, and may help a lot in renal colic. Use hot towels if the tub is not available.

Give lots of hot drinks, hot soda water, for instance. Sometimes glycerine and sugar may help. Use about one ounce of glycerine to the pint of water.

When the attack has disappeared the diet and general health of the patient should be studied. Food must be selected with a view to lessening the minerals and chemicals which cause trouble.

'LIE DETECTOR' TO TEST AUTHORS OF MARRIAGE PRANK

BERKELEY, Aug. 10.—When Dr. John Augustus Larson, only Ph. D. policeman in the world, returns from his honeymoon, the scientific "lie detector" which he invented and which figured in his romance, will work overtime. And here's the reason why.

Last evening Larson was married. He originally announced the ceremony for All Souls' Episcopal Church of Berkeley, and Rev. George E. Swan was mentioned as the pastor who would unite him in marriage to Miss Margaret Taylor, U. C. co-ed.

But reports came to the inventor-policeman that brother officers were bent on a prank. He changed the ceremony at the last minute to St. Clement's Episcopal Church in Claremont, with the Rev. F. A. Matyris officiating.

An hour before the scheduled time Larson and his fiancée of the famous "I love you" question on the sphymomanometer were on hand, but so were the brother officers. After the ceremony, as Larson and his bride were walking from the church, they were kidnapped, hustled into the patrol wagon and driven off.

The original plan it became known later was to drive the new-laws to the Hotel Oakland where they intended to remain before leaving for the south. But either the pranksters got "cold feet" or the copious tears of the bride had some effect, for the couple were finally freed on the grassy slope of Lake Merritt, from which point they walked to the Hotel Oakland.

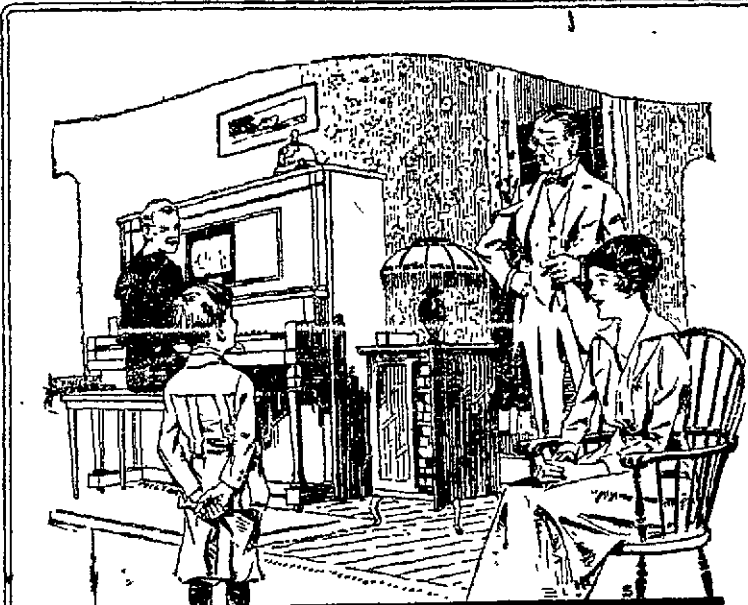

Now Larson is determined, upon returning from his honeymoon, to utilize the famous "lie detector" which aided him in revealing the "inner mind" of his bride and winning her to identify the brother officers who caused him all the embarrassment.

Rate Cut to Save Gas Users $100,000

BERKELEY, Aug. 9.—Consumers of Berkeley will be saved approximately $100,000 yearly by the recent reduction in gas rates made by the State Railroad Commission.

This was the estimate made at the offices of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company today. The saving will be divided among 17,784 consumers in Berkeley.

Two cuts in rates ordered by the railroad board since the company received a war-time price of $1.02 per thousand cubic feet have brought the price down to 92c.

CITY JOINS IN WELCOME TO PYTHIANS

Throngs of Knights and Sisters Visiting Eastbay Receive Warm Reception; Taft and Coolidge Here

Royal welcome greeted the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters who made the Eastbay cities their mecca today following the adjournment of important sessions of the Supreme Lodge and the Supreme Temple at noon in San Francisco.

Chief Justice William Howard Taft and Vice-President Calvin Coolidge, past grand officers of the order, were outstanding figures in the large party of visitors which arrived at the Broadway and Twenty-second street terminal of the Key Route system at 2 p. m. A fleet of automobiles met the several hundred guests of the city, who were taken on a scenic trip about Lake Merritt, over the Skyline Boulevard, through the hill road in vicinity to the University of California. Impressive exercises were held in the Greek Theater.

NO RACE FOR CHIEF

No opposition will meet the candidacy of George C. Cabell of Norfolk, Va., for supreme chancellor at the biennial election. He will be advanced from the rank of vice-chancellor. Election rumors directed candidates for the office which Cabell will vacate. They are: Richard S. Witte of Milwaukee; Frank E. Duncan of Tulsa, Oklahoma; John P. Arhards Wheeling, West Virginia; James W. Hunter, Newton, Iowa; Harry A. Schobert, Versailles, Kentucky; Frederick S. Atwood, Minneapolis; John Ballantyne, Boston; Governor Charles N. Herried, Aberdeen, South Dakota; Dr. Frank A. Priest, Marion, Indiana; Hugh W. De Walker, Ypsilanti, Michigan.

William Ladew, New York, who retires as supreme chancellor, is announced as a candidate for the office of supreme keeper of records and seal. He entered the lists against Harry M. Love, Washington; James A. Steese, Pennsylvania; W. M. King of Connecticut; Wm. L. Seim, Minnesota; and L. V. Kelsey, Missouri.

Thomas D. Monroe, Wilmington, North Carolina, is scheduled for re-election as supreme master of exchequer. No other election contests developed.

TWO CITIES SEEK MEET

Montreal and St. Louis are seeking the 1924 biennial convention, campaigning vigorously for the honor. Charles F. Hatfield has brought invitations from the governing body of Missouri and the mayor of St. Louis to support his claim. He is pointing out that St. Louis has not had a convention of the order since 1880. Canada has recruited a substantial following to its campaign.

Proposed amendments to laws of the order were presented at the session of the Supreme Lodge yesterday. A change in the rules of suspension of members for non-payment of dues excited wide comment.

Mrs. Lucie McCague of Medicine Lodge, Indiana, will succeed Mrs. Eugene Bunting as supreme chief of the Pythian Sisters. Proposed

7-POINT BUCK SHOT IN AIR BY ALAMEDA MAN

ALAMEDA, Aug. 10.—Grant Hicks, city poundmaster, is back in town with evidence of his prowess as a rifle expert. He returned from his vacation with a two-point buck on the radiator and a seven-pointer on the fender. The little fellow was shot while out on his morning hunt. The big one, Hicks gives his solemn word for it, was shot in the air.

According to the story which he tells, he was driving along the highway near Willets. He heard a crashing of brush at the roadside and the next moment the big seven-pointer appeared, made one leap and was sailing over the auto when Hicks pulled forth his rifle and stopped short the volplaning. His brother officers announced solemnly that they would be satisfied to have shot a seven-point buck without bringing back such a story with it.

changes in the rules of the organization came before this morning's session.

MEMORIAL RITES HELD

Memorial services for departed members assembled delegates of both orders at a solemn exercise at the Fairmont Hotel yesterday. An empty chair draped in black was a reminder of the 71 members who had died during the past two years. As the name of each was called a carnation was placed upon the altar. Eulogies were offered by Mrs. M. Josie Nelson, supreme mistress of records and correspondence; and Charles W. Eidel, supreme representative from New York. George C. Cabell presided. Taps were sounded at the close of the service.

Resolutions were drawn in memory of Edward Dunn of Washington, D. C., a charter member who for more than half a century had served as an officer.

Motor trips to Leland Stanford Jr. University, the Presidio, Golden Gate Park and the Cliff House, were enjoyed by the visitors during the afternoon. The Pythian Sisters held a banquet in the evening at the Hotel St. Francis, with the Knights meeting at the Fairmont. A concert will be given tonight at the Fairmont in compliment to the convention.

CAMPUS FOR WOMEN PLAN AT BERKELEY

Co-Eds. Quadrangle Suggested, With New Hearst Hall As Central Figure; Strawberry Canyon Idea Is Told

BERKELEY, Aug. 10.—California Field and properties in the immediate vicinity of the old Hearst Hall site have been recommended to the regents of the University of California as the most feasible site for a proposed women's quadrangle.

After three weeks of probing committee from the buildings and grounds board has decided on the foregoing site, and all that remains now is expert advice on the location. Comptroller Robert G. Sprout said today there was small chance of changing the site.

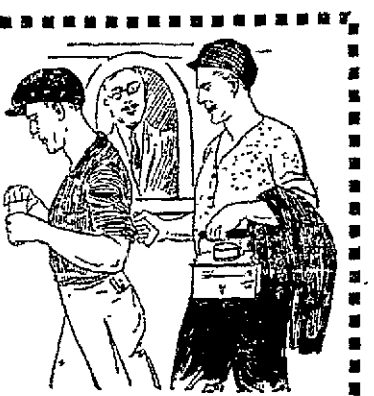

The new women's campus would be bounded by Bancroft way on the south, College avenue on the east and the boundary line of California Field on the north and west. The new fireproof building to replace Hearst Hall, the gift of William Randolph Hearst as a memorial to his mother, Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, will be the first unit of a series of new structures on the women's campus.

Further indication that the regents intend definitely to make Strawberry Canyon the site for the new athletic stadium is seen in the appointment of a committee to reduce to working plans and specifications the "Buckingham plan" for the stadium. On this committee are John Galen Howard, university architect; F. E. Carpenter and G. F. Buckingham.

So answered the grey-bearded patriarch when the emperor, Augustus, asked him the secret of his great strength and agility.

"Forsin oleo"—meaning "oil for the outside." Of course this young old man meant olive oil for that was the oil of those days just as it has been the oil ever since.

Pure olive oil is applied externally by massaging the skin and is also taken internally for anemic, under nourished and run-down systems. It also acts as a gentle laxative, lubricating, soothing and healing the much abused intestinal tract.

2000 SEE FILM AND PLEDGE AID TO SAVE SEQUOIAS

Showing of Oakland Redwoods Picture Convinces Audience of Benefit.

Two thousand Oaklanders who last night witnessed the first showing of the film of the redwoods are today enrolled among the volunteer workers for the $538,000 park bond issue to be voted on at the special election August 29.

The initial showing of the Oakland redwoods picture, a film of more than 2000 feet in length, was made at the Municipal Auditorium between the acts of "The Show-Gun," this week's offering by the Hartman-Steinhardt company. The entire proceeds from last night's show went to the S. O. S. campaign fund.

The film not only showed the beauty spots of the proposed Sequoia Mountain park, but unfolded the story of the long fight which has been waged by lovers of the great outdoors to save these splendid trees from destruction.

CONVINCED OF ASSETS.
The people who saw the film last night left the theater convinced that the proposed park will be the biggest kind of an asset to the city of Oakland and are today lending a hand to bring about a favorable consideration of the bond issue at the election.

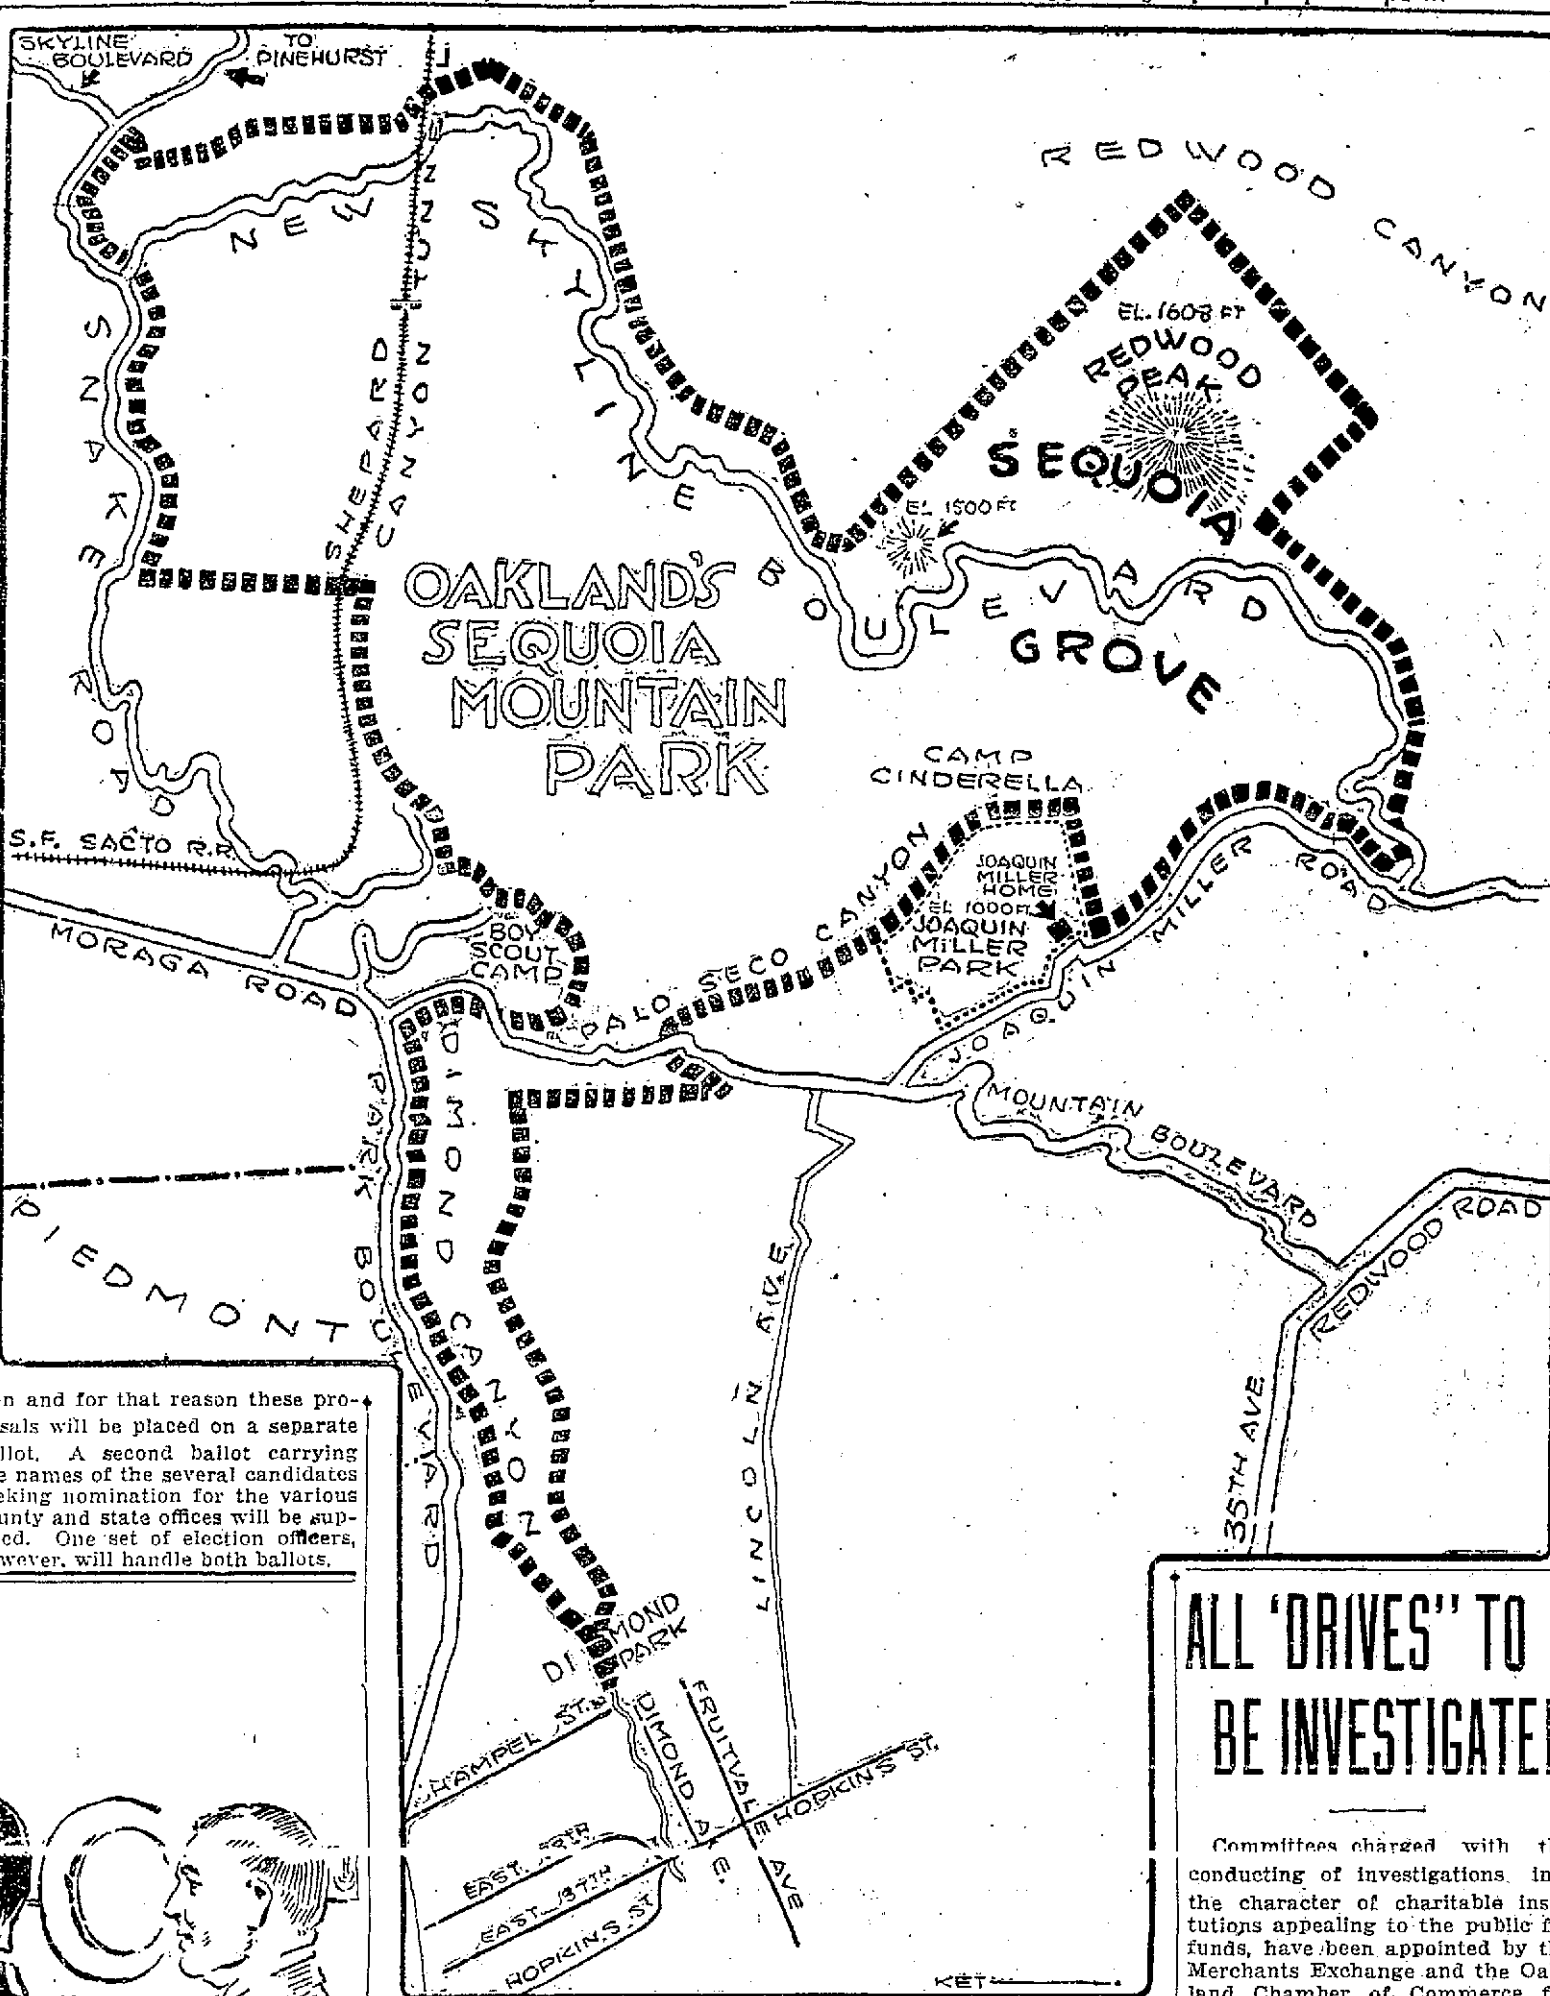

Each day also sees many new organizations getting behind the movement. Ernest Engler, chairman of the campaign committee, said today. The Oakland Chamber of Commerce has given its endorsement to the project and has termed the campaign as one "of the most forward looking movements ever inaugurated in Oakland."

LODGE FAVORS PLAN.
Abi Said Temple, No. 201, Knights of the Khorassan, a side order of the Knights of Pythias, has gone on record in favor of the park bond issue. This endorsement was given by the lodge following a talk by D. H. Wyckhoff. At a meeting of Temple No. 103, Knights of Pythias, tonight, Edgar S. Hurley, Oakland labor leader, will deliver a talk on the redwoods and ask the lodge's endorsement.

Eugene K. Sturges, city clerk, announced today that the park bond issue proposal and the proposed amendments to the city charter to be voted on August 29 come under the head of a special election and for that reason these proposals will be placed on a separate ballot. A second ballot carrying the names of the several candidates seeking nomination for the various county and state offices will be supplied. One set of election officers, however, will handle both ballots.

Where Sequoia Park Will Save Big Trees

This is a map prepared by Howard Gilkey, city landscape engineer, showing the location of the proposed Sequoia Mountain Park of 1547 acres, which the people of Oakland will vote on August 29. The park bond issue is for $538,000 and will be used to purchase lands within Dimond Canyon, Shepherd's Canyon, Seco Canyon and Redwood Peak and surrounding lands. The recently completed extension of the Skyline Boulevard passes through the upper edge of the proposed park.

Burns expects that the exceptional character of this offer and the high quality of property offered will result in cleaning up the entire tract which is practically the last property to be offered by the Realty Syndicate Company on the East Side.

Preliminary Work On Electric Plant Begun

Actual work has been commenced looking toward the speedy erection of the new plant of the General Electric Company at Fifty-fourth Avenue and East Fourteenth street. The General Electric Company is the greatest institution of its kind in the world, in addition to which it controls, through its own company and subsidiary corporations, many companies dealing in allied lines. The location of another of their factories in Oakland, therefore, is considered in electrical circles as having special significance and the whole East Side is showing intense interest in the work of clearing preparatory to actual building erection.

SUMMER CAMP CLOSES SEPT. 2

The tentative date for the closing of Oakland's Recreation Summer Camp on the Tuolumne river is Saturday, September 2. With a sufficient number of reservations to guarantee it, however, arrangements may be made to continue the vacation resort a fortnight longer. Since the opening of the season, more than 3500 residents of this city have been registered at the mountain recreation grounds. An additional 1000 are expected to be enrolled before the season's end.

Permanent cabins will be installed in the Tuolumne camp before next summer according to present plans. Ralph Beebe, Oakland harbor engineer, has made a survey of the project. Spring water has been piped over the grounds. A new dining lodge seats more than 400 persons. Dr. Harry Foster, city health officer, has pronounced the water supply of the highest quality.

The Feather river district will be visited by members of the recreation commission shortly with a view to looking over the site for a second municipal camp to be opened next year.

FARREN AND COFFEY BOX A SENSATIONAL DRAW

CINCINNATI CLUB STILL HAS BABE PINELLI AND THE OAKS ARE HOLDING LYNN BRENTON

CUSTOMERS SLUMBER AS TRAMBITAS AND O'HARA FOOL AROUND

Eddie Macey Gives Tod Morgan a Licking; Bud Soules Takes Decision From Dunn.

By BOB SHAND

Peter Nolan, the silent young man, who trains and seconds a flock of little four-rounders, got a wonderful "kick" out of the Toddy O'Hara-Johnny Trambitas fight at the auditorium last night. Peter got so interested and excited that he stood up in O'Hara's corner and yelled his head off much to the discomfort of the regular cash customers who were either sleeping or heading for the exits. Of course, Nolan was handing O'Hara and might have been a bit prejudiced, or partial, or something. From the viewpoint of the cash customers the bout appeared to have been imported from Switzerland. It wasn't one of these things by any means. The boys were on the up-and-up, but they pulled the old prima donna stuff and absolutely refused to take any chances. One judge gave it to Trambitas, the other called it fifty-fifty and the referee agreed with the latter solon. What the customers called it will never be printed on the sport pages of this family newspaper.

O'Hara, who was laid up with a damaged hand for several weeks, was so rusty that he squeaked. Nolan was advised to get an oil can, a pill, a needle, a hammer or what have you to use on his fighter. In the opposite corner the ring-side tipped Trambitas off that Mace Simpson was running a fight show and not a boxing tournament. The referee admonished the young man that it was a beautiful night outside and the air might do them good, but the pleadings and advice availed nothing until the last half minute of the last round, when O'Hara found a new opening in his left hook. Trambitas was groggy at the bell from the effects of this one punch, but Johnny presumably ended up the score by hitting O'Hara two light punches in the third round. The referee then offered the one large punch. That's all the hitting that was done.

Joe Dunn Makes Poor Fight With Soules

Speaking about "done," that means Joe. Joe went into the ring with Bud Soules packing a mean look and a keen desire to be tough. He came out with a business-like hand, but the fight was a poor one. Joe looked pretty fair when he came here first, but of late he has been very bad. His exhibition last evening will no doubt convince Mace Simpson that Joe is in need of another rest. They say he is sick or something. Must be something. When Dunn discovered that his tough look was not enough to get by on with the ambitious Mace Simpson, he resorted to holding, Soules and his right hand swung scuppered on with a popular decision. Soules, Kruger, who is managing Dunn, presented him with a watch and chain yesterday afternoon. He should have taken it back last night.

The real scrap of the evening was furnished by Frankie Farren and Joe Coffey. Rivals for the support of the "Mission" fans for many years, the pair met for the first time in the ring last night, but they can meet every Wednesday night and draw a house full of fans. The boys simply tore all the way and let go with everything they had. Farren had a slight edge in the first two rounds, but Coffey evened up the score in the last pair of innings. At the end of the second round Coffey's suitors were in a fever of anticipation. He managed to straighten up before he toppled. In the third Coffey returned the compliment and Farren was on Quaker street for a few seconds. Both boys were badly cut up. Coffey tried to win the fight in the first few seconds of the first round, when he acted like a crazy man, but Farren was too smart and let Joe play himself out.

Tod Morgan Stale and in Need of a Rest

Tod Morgan is stale and needs a long rest. The little Vallejo boy lost by a wide margin to Eddie Macey, the latter taking every round but the last, and Morgan could only claim an even break in that one. Macey was too smart for Tod, beating him in the clinches and slipping in without getting hit. Morgan could not punch last night and he could not measure his punches. He had nothing but willingness and that alone will not win fights—not from the Macey kind. Tod's constitution will not permit of him boxing so frequently. He is an undeveloped boy, frail looking and probably too game for his own good. Once a month would be a lot of fighting for the lad.

Terry McBride, the Indian boxer from Vallejo, made a big hit with the customers when he fought Cap Nelson off his feet and earned a draw. McBride ran into one in the second round and took a count of "nine," but he came back fighting and forced the pace the rest of the route.

Ted Geary's Seattle Craft Leads Field For Second Day of Regatta.

BALBOA, Newport Harbor, Cal., Aug. 10.—Thrills were promised to the races today, the third day of the racing program of the second annual regatta of the Southern California Yachting Association. The second and third heats for various craft and races for power cruisers of the A, B and C class were started.

The Sir Tom, owned and skippered by Ted Geary of Seattle, continued as favorite in the third heat for R-boats by virtue of its easy win over other vessels of this class in the first two days racing.

Yachtsmen expressed their belief that the Sir Tom would win the International Isarwood trophy in the finals, which will be held tomorrow.

The Sir Tom of Seattle, owned and skippered by Ted Geary, repeated its performance of Tuesday and won the second heat of the R class craft race in the second annual regatta of the Southern California Yachting Association here yesterday. The time over the 12-mile course was 2:03:34.

The California, of the California Yacht Club, skippered by Al Walsh, was second, time 2:09:36, while the Patricia, skippered by Ron Maitland of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club, which was in second place yesterday, took third, time 2:40:47. The Angel, skippered by Weston, of the Los Angeles Yacht Club, at the tiller, was fourth, time 2:41:17. Lady Gray, another Los Angeles Yacht Club entry, skippered by Owen Churchill, was fifth, time 2:41:12. Sixth place went to Lady Betty, Los Angeles Yacht Club, Claire Neuner skipper, time 2:42:56. The excitement of the day was provided by the C class, the Active, Santa Barbara Yacht Club entry, with Bob Boulton at the tiller, crossing the line of the 12-mile course in 2:02:12, while the Vasp, Los Angeles Yacht Club, was second, time 2:02:13.

Third place went to the Vite, Los Angeles Yacht Club, skippered by Kimball, time 2:03:20. The San Diego Yacht Club, Alphonso Jessup, finished fourth, time 2:10:36. The Vasp threw a balloon job at the lower stake, and was delayed slightly in getting square with the wind.

Posen's latest is embodied in a daily cartoon which includes a snappy verse each day of the popular song, "THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER." In addition the tune itself, a catchy air that you can hum over and then try on your piano without difficulty, is also included in the cartoon each day. It is a complete song in itself but to be truly appreciated you should have the entire series.

Posen's cartoons start in The TRIBUNE sport page as a daily feature, beginning Monday, August 14. Watch for the first one and clip them out as they appear and you will have the most popular song of the day.

Molla Mallory, May Bundy to Meet in Final

Helen Wills Puts Up Great Game Against Champion in Three Sets.

GLEN COVE, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Mrs. May Sutton Bundy of Los Angeles, and Molla Mallory of New York, tennis champions of 1904 and 1921, will meet today for the third time this season in one of the semi-final matches of the women's metropolitan singles championship on the court of the Nassau Country club.

Mrs. Mallory, who won her fourth round match yesterday after a sensational set contest with Miss Helen Wills of Berkeley, the national girls' champion, has beaten Mrs. Bundy in both previous encounters. She is favored to win again today, but the Californian is steadily improving and is expected to force the champion to top speed.

The pairings in the semi-finals of the doubles championship are: Mrs. Mallory and Miss Edith Sigourney of Boston vs. Miss Mills and Mrs. Jessup, and Mrs. Frank D. Godfrey and Miss Katherine Gardner of Boston vs. Mrs. Bundy and Mrs. William Henry of Los Angeles.

The sensational play of Miss Helen Wills yesterday, national girls' tennis champion, who forced Mrs. Molla Mallory, the national champion, to three sets before taking defeat, yesterday featured the round before the semi-finals of the open women's singles championship. The score was 6-5, 6-0, 6-2, and analysis of the sets showed that the brilliant western girl gave Mrs. Mallory one of the closest contests she has had this season on American courts.

ONE FROM WEST

Results of the day's play brought the singles competition to the semi-final round with one western survivor, Mrs. May Sutton Bundy of Los Angeles, arrayed against three eastern rivals. Besides Mrs. Mallory the other semi-finalists are Mrs. Edith Sigourney, Jessup of Wilmington, Del. and Miss Leslie Bancroft of West Newton, Mass. Mrs. Bundy disposed of Miss Edith Sigourney of Boston, 6-1, 6-4; Mrs. Jessup eliminated Mrs. Frank H. Godfrey of Boston, 6-2, 6-2, and Miss Bancroft won her way to the semi-finals by defeating Miss Helen Hooker of New York, 6-2, 6-2.

Doubles play also served the semi-finals. The four surviving pairs were: Mrs. Wills and Mrs. Jessup, Mrs. Bundy and Mrs. William Henry of Los Angeles, Mrs. Mallory and Miss Sigourney, and Mrs. Godfrey and Miss Katherine Gardner of Boston.

BEST TENNIS OF YEAR

Miss Wills, against the champion, Helen Hooker, has shown this year on eastern courts. Her service and powerful forehand drives, placed repeatedly to her opponent's backhand, had Mrs. Mallory on the defensive on the first set. Mrs. Mallory took the offensive in the second set and although Miss Wills audaciously attempted to come up to the net, she was not equal to the crushing power of the champion's drives.

SINGLES, FOURTH ROUND

Mrs. Molla Mallory, New York, defeated Miss Helen Wills, Berkeley, 3-6, 6-0, 6-2; Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, Los Angeles, defeated Miss Edith Sigourney, Boston, 6-1, 6-1.

DOUBLES, THIRD ROUND

Mrs. W. H. B. Mallory and Miss Edith Sigourney, New York and Boston, defeated Miss Jessie Gott and Miss Helen Wills, Berkeley, 6-0, 6-0; Mrs. Frank H. Godfrey and Miss Katherine Gardner defeated Mrs. William H. Pritchard and Mrs. V. Fulcher, New York, 6-1, 6-3; Mrs. May Sutton Bundy and Mrs. William Henry, Los Angeles, defeated Miss Margaretta Strahler and Mrs. E. V. Lynch, San Francisco, 6-2, 6-2; Mrs. Marion Jessup and Miss Helen Wills, Wilmington, Del., and San Francisco, defeated Mrs. Bancroft and Mrs. M. J. Farquhar, New York, 6-2, 6-1.

Oaks Get the Worst of Deal For Pinelli

With Eller Gone, Brenton Is All They Can Show For Infield Peach.

"Hot" Eller's sale to the Mobile club in the Southern league means the downward slide of one of baseball's most noted athletes. "Hot" became famous when he discovered the "shine" ball and put it to good use in helping the Cincinnati Reds to a world's championship in 1919.

Oakland baseball fans will remember "Hot" as taking part in that big series, and they will also remember him as proving another of those flippers which the big leagues wish on the local club once in awhile. The ex-major leaguer came to the Oaks as part payment for his throwing arm, were they changed to playing great ball at third base for the Cincinnati Reds. They say that Babe has made the fans of the National league forget about Henie Groh.

Training camp at Myrtlebeach, Eller claimed his pitching arm was feeling fine, and at times he showed real class, but just a few days before the Oaks started home he claimed that he caught cold in his throwing arm, were they changed to playing great ball at third base for the Cincinnati Reds. They say that Babe has made the fans of the National league forget about Henie Groh.

VAGRANT WINS RACE

First to Enter

Presenting WILBUR TAYLOR of the California Greys, the first runner to enter The TRIBUNE tenth annual Lake Merritt Marathon. Taylor is an Alameda runner, who, for the past several years, has been a regular entry in the September 9th race around the lake, having always been the first to enter. He may be expected to finish well in this year.

Boxing Chatter

Gus Gardner, the veteran lightweight who boxed Joe Gans and other good ones in the early thirties, witnessed the last two battles at the Auditorium last night and left with a good impression of the little four-rounders. Gus is now a regular actor and is at Pantages this week with a sketch company.

Gardner saw the Lew Tendler-Jimmy Duffy fight and in his opinion Duffy would probably have whipped Tendler had he continued. But Jimmy was advised by the men in his corner to claim a foul.

Duffy is the classiest lightweight in the game outside of Leonard, says Gardner, and he predicts a brilliant future for the local boy if he is properly handled. Gardner says it was a crime to send the green Duffy in against a man of Tendler's experience.

Comparing Leonard with the late Joe Gans is foolish, thinks Gardner. "I boxed Gans three times and there was never another fighter like him. Leonard is smart but Gans in his prime would have made Benny look sick."

Frankie McCann can have the Labor Day date at Reno, Nevada, with a young man named Willie Wise. Promoter Jack Thurn has written McCann making him an offer of $10,000 for the fight. Thurn has taken the matter under advisement.

Al Hoffman wants to match Eddie Hanley with some good boy before Mister Simpson's club.

Jack Josephs, the waterweight who has been winning many fights in the North-west, wants to come here and show his wares. He may get a match if he comes without an invitation.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Flora Batson, captain of the American girl athletes here for the international games beginning August 14, was unable to participate in the most desirable event in the program, the 100-meter race, in taking the hurdles at the Colombus stadium.

The members of the team were considerably encouraged today by the doctor's report that her bones were broken. Miss Batson was main at her hotel for several days, keeping all weight from the injured ankle.

The American girls, while optimistic over their chances for victory, concede they will have stiff opposition, especially from the French team, the members of which recently set a number of low marks in the various events.

FIRST HIGH SCHOOL RUNNER ENTERS THE LAKE MERRITT RACE

Ernest Nickerson of Tech. High Will Be In List; Louis Sorenson Jr. Again Enters.

By DOUG. MONTELL

The palm for being the first Eastbay high school runner to enter the Oakland TRIBUNE Tenth Annual Lake Merritt Marathon goes to Ernest Nickerson of Technical high school who sent in his entry blank for the big Admission Day race this morning. In past years Oakland Technical high school has always been represented in the annual Lake Merritt race and the boys from the Broadway institution have always made an excellent showing in the long endurance contest. Last year three runners from Technical high were among the starters of the big race and two of these, Wallace Spaulding and Wayne Fox, finished twenty-third and twenty-fourth respectively, being the first Alameda county high school runners to cross the line.

The rivalry among the high schools of the Eastbay district is keen. The Longwood Cricket Club, which has been the host of athletes who will enter and finish in the annual TRIBUNE race, last year had a larger number of runners than any other school. Both of these institutions had a greater number to finish, but the Tech lads were out in front of the entire Eastbay high school delegation at the finish, and came across the line almost neck and neck.

Technical Hi Is First to Enter.

Although Technical high's representative was the first Eastbay high school runner to file an entry for the race, it is not expected that the other schools will be outclashed in the matter of entries for the race on the morning of September 9. This early entry of Ernest Nickerson simply shows that the pupils of the Gold of Tech will be up in the annual run around the lake and an early entry is a good sign for a high place in the order at the finish. Nickerson has started training already, and those who have the task of checking off the runners as they cross the finish line will undoubtedly find him well up in the front when the big race is over a month from now.

Louis Sorenson Again to Run.

Nickerson's was not the only entry received this morning. The first of the large number of unattached runners who annually enter the race was that of Louis Sorenson, the enthusiastic bunch of TRIBUNE Marathon runners on their way found their way into the office today. Another veteran of past years, Louis Sorenson, who has been a regular runner in his entry blank. Last year Sorenson ran in the Ninth Annual TRIBUNE Marathon under the colors of Vocational high school and finished fourth. He was the fifth Eastbay high school runner across the line, and for the first time around the lake showed an unusual burst of speed, trailing the first ten the first lap, but tiring under the strain, he dropped back as the older and more experienced runners uncorked a burst of speed on the second time around.

Shorter Distance Aids Young Runners.

Sorenson showed last year that the younger runners can set as fast a pace as their more experienced rivals in a shorter distance grind, and for this reason he may be expected to place up among the first ten in the Tenth Annual TRIBUNE Marathon, now that the distance has been cut in half. Over the course around the lake of three and one-eighth miles Sorenson will not be at a disadvantage, and having run the longer distance, he has had the necessary experience which will enable him to set a fast pace and maintain it, knowing the distance.

Other entries will begin to pour in daily from now on. Runners who are unfamiliar with the course about Lake Merritt should know that the race is run on the street on that side of the lake, the route being marked by the runners of distance races are used to wearing spikes, but in a race of this sort tennis shoes must be worn.

The field is open to all amateur runners of this region. There are no restrictions. Runners need not possess any registration card nor is there any other red tap to be gone through. Merely clip out the entry blank that appears on this page. Fill out your name, address and indicate for what school, club or college you will compete. Otherwise merely fill in the word "unattached." Mail the blank cut once to the Marathon Editor of The Oakland TRIBUNE and consider yourself a candidate for one of the many prizes offered, the list of which will soon be announced.

Al Hoffman wants to match Eddie Hanley with some good boy before Mister Simpson's club.

Jack Josephs, the waterweight who has been winning many fights in the North-west, wants to come here and show his wares. He may get a match if he comes without an invitation.

ALIENS COMPLAIN OF INFERIOR FARE
AT ANGEL ISLAND

Criminals in Prisons Get Better Food, Says Australian Held By Rule.

Criminals in prisons get better fare than aliens detained at Angel Island, according to W. E. Parkin, who is one of a party of half a dozen Australians who arrived here July 31, but who were not permitted to proceed on account of the fact that the July quota of immigrants from Australia and New Zealand is exhausted.

The Australians have appealed through the channel of the British consulate, to Washington. Among the detained aliens are Miss G. G. Skinner, who came here to wed George Currie, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hoffman and their child, W. A. Hoffman, and L. T. Pike. Mrs. Hoffman, who is a San Francisco girl, but who lost her citizenship when she married an alien, has been allowed to visit her parents here.

Discussing the treatment at Angel Island, Parkin said yesterday: "We were put into bunks out of which some Chinese had been routed to make place for us. The first night we almost had to sleep on the bare springs, but at last we got bunks. The odor has been terrible, and the food not fit to eat. We are forced to buy from the restaurant with our own money, as we cannot eat the stuff set before us. "Even at that, unless we have the money to pay for it, we cannot visit Miss Skinner, we may not eat in the dining room where the staff dines. Twice daily we must eat at bare tables. Breakfast is at 6:30 in the morning, dinner at 11:30 and supper at 2:30 in the afternoon. Nothing more to eat until breakfast, because the commissary department leaves the island at 4:30 p. m. daily for their homes in San Francisco. We must go to bed at 6:30 o'clock. Confined criminals in prison get better fare."

Oakdale Almond Growers Organize

OAKDALE, Aug. 10.—Reorganization of the Oakdale branch of the California Almond Growers Association has been effected by the election of J. E. Stearns, president; C. A. Anderson, vice-president; and Wright Body, secretary-treasurer. The local exchange expects to begin packing the new crop within a few weeks. Indications point to the largest crop in the history of this industry around Oakdale.

Lodi Major in Race For A. L. Commander

LODI, Aug. 10.—Major Walter E. Garrison of this city received the endorsement of the Sacramento Post, American Legion, for the position of state commander of the Legion. He is considered a strong man for the race. He served with the First division overseas, was wounded and received the distinguished service decoration. Major Garrison also served in the Spanish-American war. He is a ranch owner of this place and prominent in local affairs.

LESSON NO. 120.
(Copyright by Edward M. Davis.)
Protective Regulations for Transmitted Stations.

(All Rights Reserved by United Feature Syndicate. Reproduction Prohibited.)
In addition to the tentative regulations governing receiving stations issued by the National Board of Fire Underwriters the following specifications of the proposed revision of Rule 8 of the "National Electric Code" in its application to transmitting stations. These specifications are intended to protect the station against the dangerous and destructive effects of lightning and in addition to safeguard the operator and apparatus from the hazard of high potential present in nearby power installations.

Rule 85. National Electric Code. Radio Equipment (for transmitting stations):
ANTENNA.

G.—Antennas outside of buildings shall not cross over or under electric light or power wires of any kind, but shall be supported by insulators. The antenna shall be supported by a tower, pole, or other structure, and shall be so located that it will not be in contact with any electric light or power wires.

Antennas shall be constructed and installed in a strong and durable manner and shall be so located as to prevent accidental contact with light and power wires by sagging or swinging.

Splices and joints in the antenna span shall, unless made with approved clamps or splicing devices, be soldered.

LEAD-IN WIRES.
H.—Lead-in wires shall be of copper, approved copper-clad steel or other metal which will not corrode excessively and in no case shall they be smaller than No. 14 B. & S. gauge.

Antenna and counterpoise conductors and wires leading therefrom to ground switch, where attached to buildings, must be firmly mounted by at least two insulators of the building, on non-absorptive insulating supports such as treated wood pins or brackets equipped with insulators having not less than five (5) inch creepage and air gap distance to inflammable or conducting material. Where desired approved suspension type insulators may be used.

I.—In passing the antenna or counterpoise lead into the building a tube or bushing of non-absorptive insulating material shall be used and shall be installed so as to have a creepage and air-gap distance of at least one (1) inch to any inflammable or conducting body. If porcelain or other fragile material is used it shall be installed so as to be protected from mechanical injury. A drilled window pane may be used in place of bushing provided five (5) inch creepage and air-gap distance is maintained.

PROTECTIVE GROUNDING.
SWITCH.
J.—A double-throw knife switch having a break distance of four (4) inches and a blade not less than one-eighth (1/8) inch by one-half (1/2) inch shall be used to join the antenna and counterpoise lead-ins to the ground conductor. The switch may be located inside or outside the building. The base of the switch shall be of non-absorptive insulating material. Slate base switches are not recommended. This switch must be so mounted that the current-carrying parts will be at least five (5) inch clear of the building wall.

K.—A double-throw knife switch having a break distance of four (4) inches and a blade not less than one-eighth (1/8) inch by one-half (1/2) inch shall be used to join the antenna and counterpoise lead-ins to the ground conductor. The switch may be located inside or outside the building. The base of the switch shall be of non-absorptive insulating material. Slate base switches are not recommended. This switch must be so mounted that the current-carrying parts will be at least five (5) inch clear of the building wall.

L.—The ground wire shall be run in a straight line as possible to a good permanent ground. Preference shall be given to water piping. Gas piping shall not be used for a ground connection. Other permissible grounds are the grounded steel frames of buildings, artificial grounding devices such as driven pipes, plates, cones, etc.

POWER FROM STREET MAINS.
N.—When current supply is obtained directly from street mains, the circuit shall be installed in approved metal conduit, armored cable or metal raceways.

O.—If lead covered wire is used it shall be protected throughout its length in approved metal conduit or metal raceways.

PROTECTION FROM SURGES, ETC.
P.—In order to protect the supply system from high-potential surges and kick-backs there must be installed in the supply line as near as possible to each radio-transmitting station a rotary spark gap, motor-generator sets and other auxiliary apparatus one of the following:

1. The condensers (each of not less than 0.001 mfd. capacity and rated for at least six hundred (600) volts test in series across the line and mid-point between condensers grounded; across (in parallel with) each of these condensers shall be connected a shunting fixed spark gap capable of not more than one-thirty-second (1/32) inch separation.

2. Two vacuum tube type protectors in series across the line with the mid-point grounded.

3. Non-inductively wound resistors connected across the line with mid-point grounded.

4. Electrolytic lightning arresters such as the aluminum cell type.

In no case shall the ground wire of surge and kick-back protective devices be run in parallel with the operating ground wire when within a distance of thirty (30) feet.

The ground wire of the surge and kick-back protective devices shall not be connected to the operating ground or ground wire.

SURGE PROTECTIVE DEVICES.
P.—Transformers, voltage reducers, keys and other devices employed shall be of types suitable for radio operation.

ENGINEER RESIGNS.
MERCED, Aug. 10.—A. E. Covell, county surveyor and engineer for several years, has resigned to accept the superintendency of the West Side highway construction work. Edgar Wilson will complete Covell's term of office.

Popular and Classical Music Will Be Broadcast By Artists Tomorrow.

A program of popular and classical music will be broadcast tomorrow afternoon from KKLX, the radio station of the Oakland Tribune, between 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock, on the time of the Atlantic-Pacific Radio Supplies Company, by Miss Teddy Jerome, pianist and organist of national fame. She will include some of her own compositions.

Miss Jerome recently arrived from Chicago, where she is rated in musical circles as one of the most accomplished pianists and organists in the Middle West. At the age of 12 she was playing the pipe organ in St. Sylvester's cathedral in Chicago and was considered a musical prodigy. Since then she has studied under the best teachers in America. At present she is associated with Harry Perkins in charge of moving picture organ playing of Quinn's Musical Bureau of San Francisco. In her concert Miss Jerome will show how the art of moving picture organ playing is taught beginning.

The talent for the entertainment to be broadcast from KKLX tomorrow evening between 8:15 and 9 o'clock will be furnished by Prof. Charles Offenberger of the Jazz Studies, 1548 San Pablo avenue. The program will consist of popular songs by a number of vocalists especially selected by Offenberger for the occasion.

Offenberger, who is an accomplished musician, a teacher of popular piano music as well as a writer of popular songs, is already well known to the radio audience. Besides accompanying the singers tomorrow evening he will be heard in an original conception, entitled "The Evolution of Jazz." Others who will participate include Miss Nell Johnston, formerly with the Will King Musical Comedy Company; Jessie Angelus, baritone, vaudeville and club entertainer; Herb Gottlieb, tenor, and member of the P. G. & E. Entertainment Club; and Walter J. Johnston, bass, overseas entertainer with the A. E. T. and formerly of the Crescent City Quartet.

TELETYPE' USED ON AIRPLANE IS WORKED BY RADIO

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—(By Associated Press.)—Typewriting in an airplane flying among the clouds, with radio machinery duplicating the letters at a ground station miles away and reeling the message off in print is a development announced today by the navy department as giving to naval aircraft "a means of communication in advance of radio telegraph and telephone systems now in current use."

Successes already attained by experts working in conjunction with the navy, the department asserted, assures the practicability of the new scheme. That such a development will be of incalculable value to all forms of aviation, commercial and military, follows inevitably on the heels of the work now being done by the navy, it is predicted.

The device has been named the "teletype." It resembles the commercial typewriter in that a keyboard having the letters of the alphabet and other symbols on it is arranged for print is operation. Each key is connected to the radio installation in the plane and when a letter is struck a radio impulse is flashed to the receiving station below, where the letter is reproduced on paper. A reversal of the operation so that the plane can receive messages from ground stations, is said to be only a matter of detail.

"This," the statement said, "will be a marked step in advance, in that it will allow explicit directions to scouting and anti-air units in flight by the commander in chief of the fleet and will enable scouts and other types of planes to convey accurate and detailed communication to the high command."

Receiving sets are sold as low as $4, and for $80 an instrument can be obtained with which concerts given at The Hague can be heard.

Honest Advertising

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. "We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be."

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained. Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher honestly advertised, honestly placed before the public and from which he honestly expects to receive his reward.

MISS TEDDY JEROME, pianist and organist of national fame, who will broadcast a concert of classical and popular music from The TRIBUNE'S radio station tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. Albert Berger of China Mail Attacked By Trio, Who Take Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Followed by three footpads into the automatic elevator in the apartment house at 1920 Post street, where he resides, Dr. Albert Berger of the China Mail Steamship Company, was assaulted and robbed at an early hour today.

The robbers had evidently been dogging the physician's footsteps hoping for a chance to hold him up. They waited until he had entered the elevator and sprang in before he could close the door.

Running the car between floors they hit him with a blunt instrument, forced him to the floor of the cage, and took $65 and his gold watch and fob.

He recovered immediately and notified the police.

Radio Broadcast Popular in Paris

PARIS, Aug. 10.—(By Associated Press.)—Radio broadcasting, is making strides in Paris, although it has by no means attained the popularity which prevails in the United States. This is due in part to the fact that all sending stations must have a government license and pay a fee.

Receiving sets are sold as low as $4, and for $80 an instrument can be obtained with which concerts given at The Hague can be heard.

Honest Advertising

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. "We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be."

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained. Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher honestly advertised, honestly placed before the public and from which he honestly expects to receive his reward.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher
